STORY OF A FRONTIER DACOITY.

Alleged Official Apathy.

HINDU GAINS OF LEARNING BILL PASSED.

Central Legislatures Disperse.

(From Our Special Correspondent.)
SIMLA, July 18.

Though ruled out on technical grounds, the adjournment motion of Dr. Nandial in Assembly today which the President did not fully read out to the House gives some striking details about a horrible incident. Dr. Nandial's claim is that these details came to his knowledge only yesterday when the Hindu sufferers came from the Frontier.

The President did not wish to hear him on the subject, as he felt the motion was abuse of privilege of the House. The motion ran: Some forty dacoits entered Akbarpura Town at 5-30 P.M. on 22nd June 1930. They, namely the dacoits, or raiders were in full military uniform and armed with small short rifles. Their officers had axes and hammers also, which they used in breaking open iron safes and doors. After entering the town they shut up the gates and morchas (picketers) were set up there (namely at the gates). The rest of the raiders namely, other than those who were posted at morchas entered in the bazar. Thereupon the shopkeepers commenced shutting up their shops. The robbers then satisfied the people that the former were of the border police and had come for the protection of the town and that the latter need not fear.

THE PRELIMINARIES.

Since the robbers were in the Border Police uniforms, the people believed them and consequently there was an exchange of compliments. A short time after the aforesaid courtesies the robbers began to fire in the air and loudly said that they had in fact come to loot the Hindus only The Hindus in the circumstances were taken by surprise and felt utterly helpless.

The raiders began to loot. The ironsafes were broken and cash taken away. In addition to cash the raiders took away clothing from the shops of piece-goods merchants. They took away valuable ornaments from the houses of four Hindus. In a punitive police chowkey about half-a-mile from the town, none turned up on the occasion of loot, though they came subsequently.

That on the morning of 23rd the police came to the injured, and aggrieved Hindus stated the sad tale of their woes and details of their losses when approximately amounted to Rs. 36,262. The Hindus on the arrival of the Superintendent of Police on the spot after having given details of the dacoity prayed for protection, but the aforesaid officer said that they may go to Karimpura and Andarsher (Peshawar City).

Local authorities concerned and the local Government have not as yet taken any effective measure to redress the Hindus. They have not upto now taken any suitable satisfactory step to extend desired protection to them namely the Hindus.

PROCEEDINGS IN DETAIL.

—:o:—

SIMLA, July 18.

At the last sitting of the last session of the Third Assembly of the Indian Legislature was held to-day. Mr. Fazal Rahimtullah moved the amendment jointly given notice of by him and Mr. Krishniah Chaudhury to the effect that "This Assembly recommends to the Governor-General-in-Council that negotiations be undertaken with the Assam Bengal Railway Company to obtain for the Government one year's extension of their existing option to terminate the company's contract on the 31st December 1931."

SCHUSTER'S HOMILY.

Sir George Schuster accepted the amendment and hoped that the position would improve by the next year but he wished the House to face facts and remember them. This subversive movement had brought ruin to trade and dislocated Government finances. If there had been a boom in Bombay, it would have resulted in happy financial conditions for the Government, which would have made it easy to buy this railway. Now the Government was faced with a deficit for next year, and while he joined with Mr. Chetty in hoping that good sense would prevail by then and normal conditions would be restored, enabling them to purchase the Railway, he hoped that the House would remember that they would then have to consider also the purchase of the B. N. Railway. Besides the Government would have to find money for provincial schemes and other commitments. To-day whatever resources the Government had or could raise would be needed to meet its existing commitments.

The amendment was carried unanimously.

SHAKING HANDS.

The President in bringing the session to a close said: "We are now at the end of the Assembly's career. This is not only the last day of this brief but crowded and important session but also the last day of the sitting of the Assembly. Before I announce the adjournment of the House 'sine die,' I would request members to do me the honour of shaking hands with me. I do not know how many members present will come back, though I wish them all good luck in their election campaign." The members then shook hands with the President. The House then adjourned.—A. P.

Council Of State Passes Bill.

SIMLA, July 18.

The last sitting of the Council of State, prior to the general election, was held to-day. Three non-official bills passed by the Assembly were on the agenda the controversial one among them being Mr Jayakar's Hindu Gains of Learning Bill, standing in the name of Mr. Desikachari. Mr. Desikachari moving consideration of the Bill, observed that no protests against it had been received since the Bill was published. He explained the provision of the Bill as outlined by Mr. Jayakar in his statement of objects and reasons.

HASTENING SLOWLY.

Mr. Khaparde said that he wanted time to consider the Bill as it embodied various changes in the Hindu joint family system. It took sixty years in England to pass the law allowing marriage with a deceased wife's sister. But in India it was sought to pass this important law of inheritance in a short session without adequate time for consideration of all interests. He advised the Council to hasten slowly.

Mr. Narayanaswami Chetty welcomed the Bill, which was then taken into consideration. Mr. Khaparde being the only dissentient. There was a discussion on clause three to which Mr. Khaparde moved an amendment, that the provisions of subsection (1) shall not apply to any gains of learning unless the acquirer has repaid to the joint funds of his family any amount expended to the detriment of the joint family funds in imparting such learning to the acquirer.

MORE OBSTRUCTION.

Mr. Khaparde maintained that this amendment was necessary on Das the Court Cees Act Amend- equity must be equitable.

Mr. Ramaswami Mudaliar opposed the amendment saying that it would further restrict the present law, that it was unworkable and that it went much further than the mover's intention.

Mr. Chari said that learning was a gift and not a matter of contract or bargaining.

The amendment was lost.

All other clauses were passed, Mr. Khaparde being the only dissentient throughout.

Mr. Chari thanked Mr. Jayakar and the Government for the passage of the Bill.

On the motion of Mr. Ramasarup Das the Court Dees Act Amendment Bill of Mr. Harbilas Sarda was passed and on the motion of Mr. Shah Muhammad Yahya, Mr. Ghuznavi's Musalman Waqf Validating Bill was passed without discussion.

The President before adjourning the Council sine die bade goodbye to all the members of the House, as not only had the session closed, but the life of the second Council had also terminated. He expressed deep gratitude to all members for the co-operation they gave the Chair and the assistance they had rendered. The Council had added to its traditions and enhanced its reputation and dignity.—A. P.

"War Council's" Plans.

(From a Correspondent.)
AMRAOTI, July 16.

...At a meeting of the C. P. (Marathi) War Council on July 12th it was decided to launch Forest Satyagraha at Talegaon in Arvi Taluka, 65 miles from Nagpur and also to picket all ware houses in the province. It was also resolved to hoist National flags on Municipal Buildings.

CIVIL DISOBEDIENCE AT PUSAD.

Suspended By Berar "War Council."

CALCUTTA POLICE WAY OF DEALING WITH SATYAGRAHIS

CALCUTTA, July 18.

Great commotion prevailed before the Bethune College, Calcutta, this morning when 35 lady Satyagrahis headed by Srimati Kalyani Das and Ela Sen picketed the College and prostrated themselves before the gate.

The police headed by the Deputy Commissioner soon appeared. On the pickets refusing to disperse they were placed under arrest in batches of 8 and 10.

LEFT NEAR JUNGLE.

The first batch was taken a few miles away in a lorry and left near a jungle, while the second batch was taken to Dum Dum and left near a deserted and dilapidated building. Both batches began marching in the rain, but were soon picked up by passing motor cars and brought to Calcutta, when they began picketing afresh.

Mallappa Danasetti, a Lingayet leader and social worker of Sholapur whose death sentence in connection with the murder of policemen has been confirmed by the Bombay High Court.

Meanwhile the students of the College and school came out as a protest against the police interference.

The lady Satyagrahis then marched in a procession towards the Presidency College where, it is stated, they will commence picketing.

The police dispersed large crowd, which gathered near the Bethune College with batons and some, it is reported, received injuries.—Free Press.

BAN ON GANDHI CAPS.

—:o:—

Guntur Order To Continue.

MAGISTRATE'S CHILDISH PEURILITIES.

GUNTUR, July 17.

Dismissing the position for rescinding the ban on Gandhi Caps the District Magistrate disagreed with the petitioner's contention that the Gandhi Cap is a part of the ordinary dress of the people. Ten years ago there was no head-dress like this cap. It is only about ten years since it was first seen. It indicates sympathy with the civil disobedience movement.

GANDHI CAP UPSETS TRANQUILITY.

Answering the argument that merely wearing Gandhi Cap would not lead to the disturbance of public tranquility, the Magistrate states: "Sudden increase in the symbols of sympathy with the movement which has just had a serious set-back could have no other effect than to assist the movement, which is well known to be upsetting public tranquility. In pursuance of the movement itself many offences have been committed. Lastly, where there is a conflict between the public interest and private right the former must prevail. The situation is unsafe for the order to be rescinded. The petition is, therefore, dismissed.—Free Press.

MR. JAVALKAR DISILLUSIONED

Appeals To Marathas To Join Congress.

BE TRUE TO SHIVAJI.

Mr. D. S. Javalkar of the Non-Brahmin Party who has just returned from England, a disillusioned man in the course of an appeal to the Marathas, says:—

While in England, I had the unfortunate opportunity to learn with grief the reports of the numerous police excesses upon harmless and unarmed sisters and brothers. These excesses, in spite of death-like censorship, are finding their way safely to the shores of Great Britain and the Continent, America not excepted.

It is, however, pity to find my Maratha brethren of the Deccan lagging miserably behind all other Indian communities in the national struggle for the attainment of Swarajya. I am happy at the same time to learn with joy and pride that Marathas of Kandesh and Central Provinces have patriotically helped the sacred cause of the country by their numerous sacrifices.

JOIN THE CONGRESS.

Brothers, bear it in mind that the history of India opened its new page on 12th March last, when Mahatma Gandhiji stepped out of his Ashram with a vow not to return home till India is free. All talk, all projects, all parties and their political moves anterior to that date stand annulled; and we, as Indians first and as the devout worshippers of Great Shivaji afterwards, must move ourselves in a manner suited to our historical traditions and hereditary chivalry. What is the use of simply getting ourselves glorified at the mere mention of the name of that Great Maratha Hero Shivaji? Shivaji fought to establish Swarajya. Mahatma Gandhiji, whose international fame as the most pious and patriotic man of our time, fortunately stands at the helm of our country, and it is but meet for all who pride themselves as the "Marathas of Shivaji" immediately to rally round the tricoloured banner of India and show to the world that our mettle still maintains its purity and strength.

It is really cowardice to maintain a Sphynx-like neutrality, when even the womenfolk of Gujarat are displaying chivalry and bravery far superior in quality to that once shown by Rajput and Maratha warriors. There are many items like the boycott of British goods, Khaddar, spinning, etc., in the national programme and you can surely help India by prosecuting any suitable item with steadfast honesty and a definite purpose.

I shall have occasions to address you through Press and in person and I hope to acquaint you with the facts which I culled during my sojourn in England. I myself stand perfectly disillusioned about that camouflage called "co-operation".

"Sternest Repression Since 'Mutiny."

"INDIA HAS A RIGHT TO BE INDEPENDENT."

"Nothing Short Of Mahatma's Terms Will Do"

COMMONWEALTH OF INDIA LEAGUE'S MEETING IN LONDON.

LONDON, July 5.
(BY MAIL).

Under the auspices of the Commonwealth of India League, the first important public meeting in London in connection with the present situation in India was held at the Friends' Meeting House on Friday, 4th July. The seating capacity of the large Hall was filled to over-flowing Indians comprising about half the audience.

Mr. Peter Freeman, M.P., Chairman of the League presided.

Mr. C. F. Andrews said that he was filled with horror at what had been going on in Bombay Presidency owing to the violence used by the Police against non-violent people and demanded a pledge from those in authority that a repetition of such brutality will never happen again.

STERNEST REPRESSION SINCE MUTINY.

Mr. Fenner Brockway, M.P., declared it was no exaggeration to say that the present struggle between India and Britain was just as improtant to the future of the world as was the Great War. Further, it was no exaggeration to say that a settlement of the present struggle was more important to the future peace of the world than the settlement reached at the recent Naval Conference. "My one political hope has been that when a Labour Government was returned to office it will help a subjection nation to free itself from foreign domination. I must confess that that hope which I have held has very nearly been destroyed, if not completely. India to-day is suffering from the sternest repression since, the time of the Indian Mutiny. I do not mean that the Viceroy or the Secretary of State is sterner than their predecessors, but repression is sterner because the movement for freedom is stronger.

INDIA'S RIGHT TO BE INDEPENDENT.

We are now at the parting of the ways. The most representative spokesmen of India to-day are in prisons and unless those prisons are opened and the prisoners including those convicted for wartime offences are released, the Round Table Conference will dismally fail in its purpose. Not only that, but the Government must accept the principle of responsible Government as a basis of discussion from the conference. If the situation develops between India and Britain, India must work out her own freedom and when freedom is won, I hope that India will, at least feel that there is a group of people in this country and even in the House of Commons, who during this struggle are going to stand definitely for the right of India for full self-government which also include the right to being an independent nation if India so desires.

NEGOTIATE WITH GANDHIJI.

Sir Albion Banerji said that the Simon Report was the very negation of the principle of self-government. If any conference were to take place in the future, Dominion Status must be the first plank. He demanded that a firm declaration of policy should be made forthwith and that every facility should be given to Gandhiji and Motilal and all other leaders who were in jail for no other offence than fighting for the liberty of their country, to attend the Conference.

NOTHING SHORT OF MAHATMA'S TERMS.

Mr. David Erulkar, Chairman of the Indian Chamber of Commerce, said it was by no means an easy matter to speak dispassionately at the present time of the situation in India. It was only the implicit faith in their programme, and above all, in the righteousness of their cause that enabled the Indian people to bear their suffering, nay the excesses that are being perpetrated upon them. It was difficult to find adequate language to express the horror and indignation which animated them. The spirit of the people cannot be bent by repressive methods, that would only stimulate the movement. Release all political prisoners. In this country, an organised attempt is being made to malign India as witness the reported intentions to translate the Simon Report into foreign languages. The Simon show is over and the Conference show is to follow. Why are the nominations to the Conference to be made by the Viceroy? Is it because then only people who can be relied upon to say the right thing will come? It is no use going on with this political juggling and nothing short of the terms laid down by Mr. Gandhi will meet the case.—Free Press

THE PRESS GAG AT WORK.

—:o:—

61 Newspapers Cease Publication.

SIMLA, July 13.

A statement was laid on the table of the Assembly in answer to Mr. S. C. Mitra's question regarding the number of papers, periodicals and monthlies from whom securities have been demanded under the Press Ordinance.

It shows that altogether 131 such journals were dealt with under the Ordinance. No names are shown under Bengal, as no security was demanded in the cases of newspapers but nine of them ceased publication following the demand of securities from the presses at which they were printed. Out of the above 131, 61 ceased publication.—A. P.

BASSEIN YOUTHS TO DEFY MAGISTRATE'S ORDER.

—:o:—

Ban On Picketing Shops

BASSEIN, July 17.

An order has been issued by the District Magistrate of Thana today under Section 144, Cr. P. C., prohibiting the picketers within an area of 300 feet from the shop. It is applicable to Bassein Municipal town and Bhayandar village. It is also stated that picketers disobeying the order will be punished under Section 188, I. P. C.

Some youths of Bassein were picketing the shops since last fortnight, and for that purpose they had formed themselves into "Swatantrya Sangha". They have determined to defy the order.—Free Press.

WOMEN CANNOT ALWAYS BE YOUNG
BUT THEY CAN ALWAYS BE LOVELY

Too often beauty passes with youth, particularly among the secluded women of India who have little contact with the outer World and do not realise how their sisters in other countries now retain beauty all their lives.

The chief source of beauty lies in the skin, and to keep the skin smooth, soft and clear all that is needed is a little care, and the use of the preparations that years of patient research have perfected and placed at the disposal of women, Oatine Cream and Oatine Snow. Oatine Cream should be gently massaged into the skin for a few minutes every night, and Oatine Snow should be used during the day; it is the duty of all men to teach their women folk this new and simple method of enhancing and preserving their beauty.

Oatine preparations contain no animal matter whatever, and are untouched by hand in the course of manufacture and packing.

What the People Say

PLIGHT OF INDIAN BANK CLERKS.

—:o:—

To The Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—The Swadeshi movement is in full swing all over the country but the miserable lot of the Indian Bank Clerks does not seem to have improved in the least. They still complain of the whiteman's burden which is becoming more and more unbearable. How unbearable is the burden can well be judged from the following information given to me by an officer of a local Indian Bank. The bank pays a salary of Rs. 47,000 per month to its local staff as follows:

7 European Officers Rs. 12,050.
36 Indian Officers Rs. 11,450
260 Indian Clerks Rs. 19,800
82 Hamals Rs. 3,700.

It will thus be seen that the European officers are thriving at the cost of the poor Indian employees. We do not hate Englishmen. On the contrary we love them and appreciate their services. But now the time has come when the Indian Bank Directors must tell them the plain truth that they can serve here only on the terms of equality. There is no reason why an Indian Officer should get only Rs. 600 per month when an European Officer is paid Rs. 2,000 or more for doing the same work. Why special promotions of Rs. 350 should be given to European Officers when the poor Indian clerks are struggling for an increment of 3, 4 or at the most 7 rupees per month? Why an European Officer should be given Rs. 300 as the branch allowance when an Indian Officer is paid only Rs. 100?

Let us, however, hope that the Directors of the Indian Banks will take these facts into consideration and redress the long-standing grievances of the poor Indian clerks toiling from morning till night on a miserable salary.—Yours, etc.,

R. D. BALIWALA.

DEPRESSION IN MILL INDUSTRY.

—:o:—

To The Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—Would you allow me a small corner in your esteemed paper to enlighten the investing public by seeking some answers from the Bombay millowners to certain queries both in the interest of the investors as well as the millowners.

Sir, as we all know that seven Bombay mills are suspending their works indefinitely from 1st August, until conditions improve, throwing out of employment nearly 15,000 men. There can be no gain-saying that the whole country is passing through a period of heavy depression and anxiety and as a result of which every businessman has resorted to a wise policy of curtailment of staff and wherever possible half pay has been offered to save more unemployments.

Are our Bombay millowners in whose hands the investing public has entrusted their funds still going to continue paying fat salaries in absence of any business, when ruin is staring in their faces.

Will not those millowners who are closing down their concerns save the investing public by a strict policy of retrenchment instead of maintaining large idle staff on handsome salaries at the expenses of the shareholders. Will they explain?—Yours, etc.,

BOYCOTT OF FOREIGN SOAP.

—:o:—

To The Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—It is a bit disheartening that, in spite of the very hard tussle we are having, every incoming steamer from is bringing in tons of soaps. Does this mean that India is unable to produce better soaps than those made in foreign countries or that the boycott movement does not apply to soaps? It is certainly high time for capitalists and dealers in and around the Nuli Bazaar and Crawford Market to rise to the occasion and see what could be accomplished.—Yours, etc.,

INDIAN.

"UNACCEPTABLE."

—:o:—

To The Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—Referring to your leader "Unacceptable" in this morning's issue which accurately represents the trend of thought of modern India on the Viceroy's latest utterance on behalf of his principals, I venture to prophesy that this country is destined to acknowledge a great debt to His Excellency—viz., that of introducing to modern India if and whose the introduction is needed, those Indian groups, interests or elements whose loyalty to the strong or in power may not be doubted and who will be arrayed in London as foreign-made and/or self-styled representatives of the people of India to oppose or misrepresent the real representatives of the interests of the people.

Can modern India and the modern world be successfully fooled into the idea that the Indian Muslim ulema, whose business it is to keep in touch with the intellectual growth of their flocks and who have found it unprofitable, out of date, and stupid to laud to the skies any knight communalist of the "Divide and Rule" Order, are less informed of the abhorrence in which communalism is held in modern India than Britain's agents in India who would recognise and perpetuate the recognision of communalism in the Round Table Conference?

Has the world been kept or can it now be kept successfully in the dark about the fact that knight constitutionalists for the perpetuation of India's political serfdom cannot even successfully hold and address a public meeting anywhere for any propaganda? Can this gentry of "Bahadurs" or "gallants" ever be palmed off in the modern world as representatives of independant Indian thought or Indian interests?—Yours, etc.,

AN APPEAL TO RACE-GOERS.

—:o:—

To The Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir, The Poona Season has commenced the activities by publishing the fixture and engagement charges of trainers and owners. The nation at this juncture demands from every individual (patriotic) an immediate service by all ways and means to liberate India. Particularly people interested in racing should make efforts from now to put an end to the meetings before these take place on Poona course. I know I will be rebuked for making this appeal but I am requesting them to consider in coolness, whether there will not be an atmosphere in the near future which will represent active management of the Turf by Indian body guarding automatically Indian interest. A remarkable change what is expected as a result of this move is that the Stakes that are presently allotted to English horses (meant ultimately for the benefit of the British trade) will be lessened at a proportion quite contrary to the present system. At present Arab horses are allotted one-third of the amount of Stakes allotted to English horses. A negligible Stake is allotted to horses bred in India (termed as country bred). Racing has become now-a-days a regular business activity and the spirit of sport is vanquished in general. I know many instances of people contending that the Turf is the only honourable place where gambling in odds in the name of sport is acknowledged legitimate. If owners and trainers jointly take a lead in non-cooperating I am sure the time come soon where Indianization and Indian interest will be organised and regulated in the Turf.—Yours, etc.,

ANTI-CONGRESS PROCESSION.

—:o:—

Repudiated By Bombay Muslims.

To The Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—To harm the reputation and the good name of Muslims in Bombay some people took out a so-called Muslim procession under their name on Sunday last. So far as sane and educated Muslims are concerned, they had nothing to do with this procession. The following declaration is made with a view to clear misapprehension and to assert that the said procession did not represent the Mussalmans nor did it voice the true feelings of Muslims.

The idea of taking out such a procession emanated from the Khilafat Office where a few Muslims without any following gathered the previous night. Mr. Zahid Ali, son of Maulana Shaukat Ali took a leading part in organising the procession. Several of his followers went in certain localities and asked certain section of Muslims to join the procession. They did not announce the object of the demonstration and when several Muslims demanded why the procession was being organised the reply was. "You will know it tomorrow."

Accordingly, the procession was taken on Sunday at 2-30 p.m. from a lane called Khanda lane near J. J. Hospital. The procession consisted of a section of Muslims inclined to be rowdy and disorderly As the procession was marching through Muslims localities it was the subject of ridicule from respectable members of the community. There was not a single Muslim leader in the procession nor was it taken under the auspices of any Muslim Association.

When the procession reached the Jumma Masjid via Crawford market, it met a huge Jain procession organised to support the boycott campaign. There were apprehensions of trouble, but the wise Muslims residing near the Jumma Masjid formed a cordon round the Muslim processionists and allowed the Jain procession to pass through Abdul Rehman Street. The Muslim procession again met the Jain procession near the Imperial Bank premises in Abdul Rehman Street and again the Muslims of that locality formed a cordon round the Muslim processionists and allowed the other procession to pass.

After this incident the procession went round some localities and dispersed near the Khilafat Office.

We the signatories request the organisers of this procession to come forward and say whom they represent and for what object the procession was organised.—Yours, etc.,

WORLI VOLUNTEER'S DEATH.

Some Queries.

To The Editor, of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—The death of one of the volunteers at Worli prison from dysentry, compels me to seek the courtesy of your columns to enquire from the authorities the following:—

(1) Was the volunteer in good state of health when he was admitted, if not,

(2) How many times was he medically treated and who examined him?

(3) Whether the food supplied to prisoners and about which here is so much better complaint, both in press and in public was not one of the primary causes of shortening the life of this volunteer.

Let the Director of Information come out with facts and say who is examining the food supplied to volunteers, and whether the Jail Manual Code is followed.—Yours, etc.,

FUNERAL PROCESSIONS.

To The Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—I wish to make a request through the columns of your paper to all leaders who head funeral processions in honour of patriots, like the one taken out to day to bear in mind that whereas in the case of other communities it is a mark of defence and respect to the deceased to take off the headgear, in the case of Parsis such action is tantamount to calculated disrespect. Those in charge of such processions should remember that custom forbids Parsis from removing their cap in the presence of the dead, and insistence should not be placed on their removing it.—Yours, etc.

BELGAUM LETTER.

National Flag Over Municipal Building.

(From Our Correspondent.)

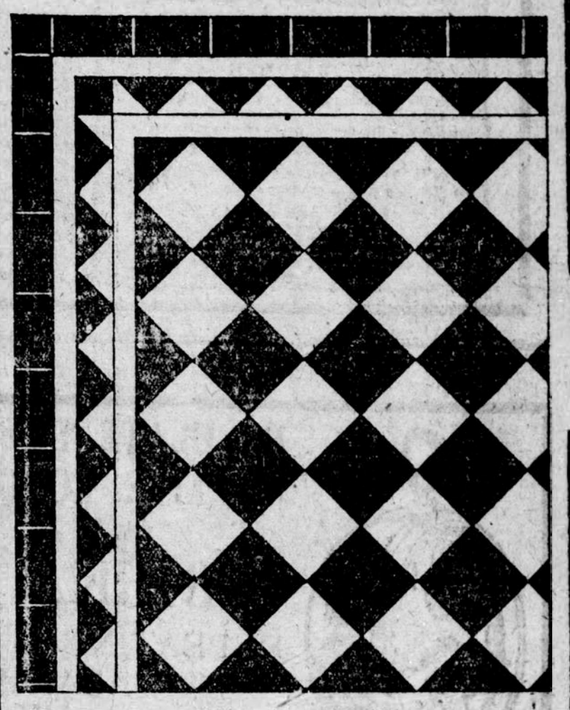
BELGAUM, July 15.

The boycott programme has been engaging more and more attention of the merchant community here. They have already resolved not to give fresh orders for foreign cloth during the rainy season. Now they have resolved to boycott foreign soap altogether and are thinking of stopping cigarette sale.

The question of hoisting the National Flag on the local Municipality had caused much commotion in the town during the last fortnight. The resolution recommending the act was sent to the Municipal President by Mr. Bhatkhande, a councillor, long ago and still it did not come up for consideration. This had roused the suspicions of the people. To express the wishes of the citizens to the matter, an open letter signed by all the prominent people of the town, and requesting the President and the members of the Municipality to carry out the wishes of the citizens by voting for the resolution was drawn up and published. The municipal meeting came off yesterday. When the resolution was actually moved and most ably supported by Mr. Muzumdar, it seemed 15 voted in its favour. Only three voted against the proposition and two remained neutral. The decision was hailed with cries of 'Bande Mataram', and at last the President hoisted the National Flag over the main municipal entrance.

The local Bar has taken to spinning with admirable zeal. Each day more than 2,000 yards of hand-spun yarn is supplied to the Congress Committee free of cost by the members of the Bar. This has really given the greatest impetus to Takli spinning.

THE BIGGEST FACTORY OF ITS KIND IN THE WORLD.



Beautiful Floors.

WHICH house would you occupy in preference—a house with indifferent "kutcha" flooring, or one with clean, shining, and decorative tiles? The answer is fairly obvious. It is not only for its natural beauty that you would choose it, but from the points of economy and cleanliness as well. No dust-catching mats or expensive carpets, which need daily cleaning and dusting and frequent replacement.

That is the question which all quick-thinking and progressive property owners are to-day answering by getting their houses paved with modern, sanitary and beautiful tiles, and the best, strongest and most economical are produced at

SLIMOIDS FOR OBESITY CURES SLIMOIDS
ITS DANGERS
The digestive organs of those suffering from Obesity or over stoutness do not function properly. Instead of assimilating and coverting the natural fats into nourishing and vigour producing elements, superfluous fatty tissue is permitted to accumulate. This accumulation impedes the action of the various organs, causing loss of vim and energy, quickness and shortness of breath on the least exertion, palpita and other affections of the heart, headaches, constipation, foul breath, kidney troubles, and other disorders.
ITS INCONVENIENCE
In these days of tennis, golf, and other out-door sports, the over-stout are at a grave disadvantage.
At Dances too, the stout person cannot move with that ease and grace so fully enjoyed by those less fleshy.
And in many other ways during every day life, those suffering from Obesity, through their enforced in-activity, are unable to extract the full enjoyment of life.

More Arrests & Convictions.

(From a Correspondent)

RANPUR, July 12.

The Dhandhuka Police arrested Mr. Jiwanlal Diwan, the Secretary, Gujarat Provincial Congress Committee, who was the President of the Dhandhuka Taluqua Praja Parishad. He was brought in a third class carriage under the close Police guards.

Dr. Hariprasad Bhatt, in charge Barwala Camp, was taken under arrest and was convicted to 6 months' rigorous imprisonment in company with Mohanlal 'Yudh-kavi' who was awarded 15 months' rigorous imprisonment.

The Parishad Round-up is still going on. Five volunteers from Dholera, Mr. Vashram Mukhi, the Patel of Koli community, from Cher, and three leading merchants from Barwala have all been arrested, and charged before the Magistrate for taking active part in the unlawful assembly of the Dhandhuka Taluka Parishad. Yellow leaflets marked gratis and printed in the Bombay Government Press directed against 'Liquor Shop Picketing', foreign cloth boycott, as well as also those entitled 'Who Benefits by the present unlawful movement?" "Salt-Tax—its econmics" are being rained over the populace and broadcast throughout the Taluka by the Police, of whose duty, this also seems to be an integral part.

Ranpur as usual occupies a separate place in spite of the co-operative activities of the local Satyagraha Camp. On the 10th last, one volunteer, Sjt. Bhagwandas, was arrested in company with two local youths who were subsequently released. This was for picketing the local liquor shop.

Section 144 is as good as applied as the organisers of processions and meeting are immediately arrested, since 6th instant daily meetings are held and daily conveners are arrested. On the 10th a big procession of foreign cloth was held. A big meeting of about four thousand has assembled here, wherein Mr. Abdul Karim Azad of Panchmahals was to address the meeting. He was arrested just as he rose to address the meeting right in the very heart of the meeting in company with one another volunteer, who was standing nearby. There was absolute non-violent spirit in the meeting which peacefully conducted its proceedings unimpaired. Nine persons in all are arrested uptil now in this connection. Mr. Navnitral Chouksey was awarded four months S. I. A. Class. He was working in Khaddar Production Department only. Mr. Virchand Sheth, a volunteer of Dhandhuka, was given 15 months R. I.

Fraud In The Name Of Patriotism.

—:o:—

Mr. P. J. Manjrekar of the Girgaon District Congress Committee informs us that one of his relatives recenty purchased a box of paper fasteners. The box was sold as a pure swadeshi product. Out for curiosity the label on the box was removed and it was found printed underneath "Made in England". The public are therefore warned to see that every article is marked Made in Germany or Japan on some non-British country.

DOLLAR LINES NEW SERVICE.

With the sailing of the s. s. "Pres. Hayes", from Singapore last November the Dollar Steamship Lines established a New Direct Service between the Federated Malay States and the United States of America.

Since the inauguration of this New Service the s. s. "Pres. Monroe" has also been entered in this route and the Company now maintains direct monthly sailings between Singapore and San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Beginning with the sailing of the s. s. "Pres. Hayes" June 27th a substantial reduction in first class passenger rates on this New Direct Service from Singapore to San Francisco and Los Angeles via Manilal and Honolulu has been announced.

TODDY SHOP AUCTIONS.

—:o:—

No Bidders In Karnatak Districts

(From Our Correspondent.)

DHARWAR, July 12.

It transpires that in Belgaum district Government has lost over a third part of last year's income from the toddy auction prices in the sales that took place last month for the year 1930-31. In Bijapur the income has dwindled from Rs. 1,40,000 to Rs. 80,000. The case of North Canara has been an eye-opener to Government. Out of a total of 77 liquor shops in the district only 15 could be auctioned. The remaining found no bidder at all. The Collector announced his intention of giving to any bidder the two shops at Ankola, which used to bring thousands of rupees, for a nominal value of Rs. 100. But no one came forth to bid for even that sum. On the whole Government have lost more than three-fourths of last year's revenue. In the case of Dharwar, Government found no bidder on the first date that they had fixed up for the bidding. Consequently they called for sealed tenders for the different shops in order to avoid the disappointment of the failure of a public auction. But now they have again fixed the 18th instant as the auction day when it is expected they will meet with no other fate than that which awaited them on the previous occasion.

BULLION WEEKLY REVIEW.

—:o:—

Messrs. Devkaran Nanjee, have issued the following report on the 16th July:—

Our Silver market registers little change in the prices since we wrote our last Review. For the whole of the week, prices have moved within a narrow range except in the middle when the price for the first settlement sharply advanced by about a rupee on heavy Bazar short-covering owing to scarcity of contracts and better upcountry demand. But this rapid rise was not maintained and the price again declined on selling by Commission Houses and the prominent Calcutta operator owing to fresh arrivals from London and Shanghai. The bodly difference between the first and the second settlement has narrowed to five annas owing to liquidation by Shroffs and merchants on the approach of the settlement date. On the whole Shroffs and Commission Houses are taking very little interest in the market owing to uncertain political situation in the country. The highest price touched during the week was Rs. 47 for eht first settlement on the 11th instant and the lowest Rs. 46.1 on the 9th instant, the range for the week being Rs. 0-15 T. T. Shanghai on London is 0-1/8 higher. The highest price was 1-6 1/4 o nthe 11th instant and the lowest 1-6 on the 9th instant.

The London price is 0-1/3 higher. The market was quiet but steady with India being a moderate buyer while China operated both ways. America remained a free seller on all advances. Continent remained inactive. The New York price is 34-1/2 cents, i.e. 1/2 cent. higher than the last week's closing. The highest price was 34-3/4 cents on the 11th instant and the lowest 33-7/8 cents on the 8th instant.

The prices for Gold remain firm this week owing to better off-take and easier local Exchange. Yesterday's closing rates were Rs. 21/9- for ready, Rs. 21/8/9 for the first settlement and Rs. 21/9/6 for the second settlement. London price remains about unchaged at £ 4/5/-.

INDIAN COTTON CHART.

—:o:—

We have received "Cotton Chart" issued by Messrs. Chunilal Mehta and Company Cotton and Bullion Brokers Marwari Bazar, Bombay. This is the only Indian firm, who are members of Liverpool, New York and New Orleans Cotton Exchanges. Like the previous publications this year's chart which is made to 25th May 1930 shows at a glance weekly fluctuations in the cotton prices at Liverpool, New York and Bombay. The inset containing the changes in the Imperial Bank rate not only shows the financial condition of the country but also provides an instructive study of the Bank rate and its effect on cotton prices in Bombay. The cheapness of Indian Cotton prices is easily ascertainable and the chart shows that in the month of May 1930, Liverpool Cotton prices reached a level below cost of import. The restoration of the gold standard in Japan during January 1930, marks the line with an upward tendency. The chart will prove important to a financier, a cotton operator and those who are interested in straddle business between American and Indian Cotton.

Film

. . . dangerous to teeth

Remove it daily to keep teeth white and sound

WINNING smiles depend on glorious white teeth — and teeth like that depend on freedom from what dentists know as film. Film is a stubborn, clinging coating that ordinary ways fail to remove successfully. It is the chief source of serious tooth and gum disorders—of decay and pyorrhea.

To remove film dentists prescribe the special film-removing dentifrice called Pepsodent. It acts to curdle film so that brushing easily removes it in gentle safety.

Pepsodent contains no pumice, harmful grit or crude abrasive.

In a few days teeth grow whiter and begin to sparkle. They continue to improve for months. Start today.

FROM WEATHER TO WIRELESS.

—:o:—

Sir Oliver Lodge's Startling Discoveries.

On a December day in 1904 a tall man in a long brown overcoat stood in a secluded court yard of Birmingham University The air was thick with one of Birmingham's worst brand of winter fogs, and not even London's "particulars" are thicker than the really bad Midland fog.

The tall man was Sir Oliver Lodge, Principal of Birmingham University. He was engaged in examining certain strands of wire which passed upwards and vanished a few feet overhead in the impenetrable gloom.

Presently there came from somewhere near by the vicious crackle of powerful electric discharge, and great jagged sparks shot to and fro between the spherical terminals of an apparatus in the research laboratory outside which Sir Oliver was standing. Men pulled the terminals apart, and as the discharge was transferred to the outside wires there came from above a sharp fizzling like the sound of water dropping on red-hot metal.

MOVING FOG ON.

Then a strange thing happened The solid fog bank thinned There was no wind to drive it away. It simply thinned, and the outlines of the lofty University building gradually developed like the image on a photographic plate. The fog turned to cloud the cloud to mist, and high overhead there became visible the insulators in which the wires terminated.

When the current was shut off the biting fog crept back, and in a few minutes filled the space which had been so strangely cleared.

A second experiment of the same kind was made a little later at Liverpool. One discharging pole was erected, and a thick fog was quickly cleared for a distance of sixty feet all round.

Fog has been one of man's worst enemies for centuries, and for many years scientists have discussed ways and means of fighting it. As long ago as 1870 Professor Tyndall showed that a dust-free space was formed over a hot body, such, for instance, as a red-hot poker.

At first, it was thought that the heat simply burned up the dust particles, or that the rising currents of air blew them away, but a little later Lord Rayleigh proved that the explanation was not so easy as this. In 1883, Sir Oliver Lodge took up the problem and, with the help of the late Professor Clark, proved that what actually happened was a bombardment of the dust particles by molecules. Further experiments proved that this is an electrical action.

What is a fog? It is one of two things—particles of dust or tiny drops of water vapour Smoke on one side, mist on the other, and a town fog is a combination of the two.

Electrify a cloud and it turns to rain, and Sir Oliver Lodge proved that, if you electrify a fog, the dust or smoke in it is precipitated —that is, caused to fall to the ground. So came about the interesting experiments which we have described and which have proved that—given a sufficient supply of electric power—even the densest fogs can be cleared away —Thus writes T. C. Bridges in "Answers."

LIGHTNING "SAFETY FIRST."

From his student days Sir Oliver Lodge has taken a keen interest in weahter, especially electrical phenomena, and one of his most interesting books, written so long ago as 1892, deals with protection against lightning.

The lightning conductor was in existence long before Sir Oliver's time, for the first was erected by Benjamin Franklin on his own house in Philadelphia in the year 1752.

Most of us know something about lightning conductors—that they are made of copper or iron with a sharp point at the top and the lower end connected with a metal plate buried in damp ground. The object of a conductor is two-fold—first, to drain away the electricity from passing clouds and so render them harmless; second, when this cannot be done, to receive the flash and convey it to earth without harming the building to which the conductor is attached.

THE ONLY PERFECT PROTECTION.

It was a good many years before the lightning conductor was generally adopted, but by the middle of the last century it was used on all church spires, factory chimneys and similar tall buildings, and was supposed to afford complete protection. But while conductors no doubt saved many lives and buildings, numbers of cases occurred in which protected buildings were struck.

Several of these are mentioned in Sir Oliver's book. There was for instance, one at a house in Wavertree, where lightning struck a church which had a conductor and, at the same time, a gas pipe was melted in an underground cellar opposite and the gas fired

On May 14th, 1889, Mangalore lighthouse, off the east coast of Madras Province in India, was struck, one man being killed and floor inside the lighthouse. The man who was killed was standing near a coil of galvanised iron fencing wire which lay inside the room, and which was only five feet from the conductor, though separated from it by the outside wall.

These and similar cases gave people the idea that lightning conductors were of little use. Then it was that Sir Oliver Lodge began to study the subject.

Clark Maxwell had already pointed out that there is only one perfect protection against lightning—to enclose the chamber in a metalled cage or sheath through which no conductor is allowed to pass without being thoroughly connected to it. But this method is too costly for ordinary use, though it might be applied to a powder magazine or dynamite factory.

IRON BETTER THAN COPPER.

Sir Oliver pointed out that the danger lies not so much in the opposing charges of electricity in cloud and earth, but in the vast store of energy in the stratum or layer between the two (what is called the "dieltctric"). To dissipate such a volume of energy suddenly by means of a thick rod of copper is not the safest way, for an electric discharge is very likely to overshoot itself and not be exhausted in a single swing.

"The hastily discharged cloud," says Sir Oliver, "at first supposed positive, over-discharges itself and becomes negative; then again discharges and over-discharges till it is positive as at first and so on with gradually diminishing amplitude of swing, all executed in an extraordinarily minute fraction of a second, but with a vigour and wave-producing energy which are astonishing."

It was formerly usual to employ a thick and costly copper rod, because it is the best conductor of electricity, but Sir Oliver showed that a thin iron wire may actually be better. Its extra resistance dissipates some of the energy and tends to damp out vibration sooner. A side flash is less likely to occur from thin iron than from stout copper. He proved also that metal tape is electrically better than a round rod but that better than either are four detached and well separated wires.

ON TO WIRELESS WAVES.

His experiments have been of very great help to the British Post Office, to telegraph, telephone and cable companies in showing them how to protect their wires and cables from the effects of lightning.

Besides proving that iron was better than copper, Sir Oliver demonstrated that several parts are preferable to a single point; that conductors should be continuous and all unavoidable joins soldered; that 'high' lightning rods are not of special value; that greater surface should be given to earth connections; and that both deep and shallow earths are required. Also, that it is most necessary to inspect all lightning rods at regular intervals.

It was his work on lightning conductors that drew Sir Oliver's attention to the investigations of wireless waves, and it may be news to some of our readers that it was he who invented the coherer which made possible the success of Marconi's early experiments in wireless. Listen to what the great Hertz himself said:

PIONEER OF RADIO.

Professor Oliver Lodge in Liverpool investigated the theory of the lightning conductor, and in connection with this carried out a series of experiments on the discharge of small condensers which led him on to the observation of oscillations and waves in tones.

"Inasmuch as he entirely accepted Maxwell's views and strove to verify them, there can scarcely by any doubt that if I had not anticipated him he would also have succeeded in obtaining waves in the air and thus also of proving the propagation of electric force."

In other words, it was just a chance that Sir Oliver's name did not figure instead of Marconi's as the originator of practical wireless telephony. As it is, he is one of the greatest living authorities on the subject.

TROUBLE BREWING IN KHARAGPUR.

—:o:—

Discontented Workers.

The Branch Secretary, B. N. Railway Indian Labour Union Kharagpur, wires under date July 17:—

Trouble is again raising its head in the Kharagpur railway workshops. The men in the foundry shop have been observing Satyagraha from the 16th instan because of non-redressal of grievances. Representations made directly and through the Union since March have gone unheeded Piece work which was recently decided to be optional has now been made compulsory. The new system was introduced without consulting the men or the Union.

The administration resented the Union's efforts to bring about a settlement. The advice of Messrs Giri and Kalappa has been rejected. The contagion is spreading to other shops. The Agent's letter threatening dismissal and forfeiture of bonus and gratuity is causing great discontent. Unless better counsels prevail serious developments are likely to arise.—A. P.

INDIA-QUO VADIS?

ched doctrine of the 'good of the governed', as the only principle on which it was possible to maintain a world-wide Empire. This excellent doctrine was applied except to India, and it is only now that the British people are about to wake up from the effects of 150 years of Dope", about India is an outstanding instance of what happens to Empires run on the "Die Hard" plan, or on what may be called the "Birkenhead—Beavermere" plan, we have before us the example of Spain. Not a single square mile of those vast territories won for the Spanish Crown by Cortez and Pizarro is to-day part of the Spanish Empire". The Viceroy gave us one serious warning the other day, which has been overlooked. He said that India and Britain can now only be brought together to a mutual understanding by "a miracle". He will return in a few months to his home-land—a sad man. The turning point in the British Empire in its treatment of colonies was when Lord Durham issued his famous "Report on the affairs of British North America" in 1839, at a time when chronic discontent was rife in Canada. The "Die Hards" of that day were against "these new fangled ideas of freedom" and considered that colonies should be governed as they always had been, in the sole interests of the "dear old Motherland," but wiser counsels at last prevailed and the Status of the Dominions to-day is the inevitable result of Lord Durham's far-seeing statesmanship. After 150 years of folly, the British are now about to wake up from their slumber about India. Whether they have awakened in time remains to be seen. The problem now to decide, is whether a "Brown Dominion" is possible Great Indian minds in the past have told us that there was ample room in the Commonwealth for such a Dominion. Up to now, we have maintained a non-possumus attitude, with the result that the number of those working to make India independent of the the British Empire, has rapidly grown, just as it grew in Ireland after our colossal blunders of 1918 and 1919. The experience of the past eighty years in our treatment of self-governing white communities within the Empire has conclusively proved that there is only one basis on which a permanent world State can rest, with security, that of freedom. We must at once concede to India the right to "go to the devil" if she so chooses,—and in her own way,—

Yours, etc.,

VISAPUR JAIL.

—:o:—

Fit For Habitation, Says Official Communique

The Director of Information, Bombay writes:—

Owing to the large increase in the Presidency's jail population which has recently occurred as a result of the civil disobedience movement, Government have found it necessary to re-open the old Visapur Jail as a temporary prison. The re-opening of the jail has been the subject of some comment in the Press and various allegations have been made as to the treatment of the persons now confined there, such allegations including statements that the prisoners suffer from lack of water, are given bad and insufficient food and are confined by the use of the bel chain at night. In addition to the comments in the Press, the Indian Merchants' Chamber have also addressed a letter to Government in which the committee of that body enquire whether proper arrangements have been made for the health of the prisoners, for their food supply and for their treatment.

BUILDING REPAIRED.

In regard to the re-opening of the jail, some measures had to be taken to cope with the abnormal number of prisoners and forced with the necessity of immediately opening another central prison, Government decided to utilise the old Visapur Jail buildings which were available and which could, with small repairs and adaptations, be converted into a temporary prison within the period of time which occasion demanded. The prison buildings were accordingly thoroughly repaired and every possible arrangement made under the personal supervision of the Inspector General of Prisons, who set up his camp office there, for the accommodation of the prisoners to be sent there.

As for the actual arrangements themselves, the prison consists of three pucca barracks and nine temporary barracks with country tile roofs, dwarf walls and expanded metal sides, each barracks being capable of housing one hundred prisoners. These barracks are lit by petrol lamps throughout and the bel chain is no where in use. There is a thoroughly adequate drinking water supply which is conveyed by pipes to each enclosure from a tank containing 5,000 gallons and there is no restriction whatsoever on legitimate requirements. All drinking water is chlorinated and a Vitri chlorinator is being installed.

WHOLESOME FOOD.

The food supplied is wholesome, clean and well cooked and includes a daily supply of fresh vegetables. No grinding work is done by any prisoner. For bathing prisoners are marched to the large lake near the prison where suitable bathing arrangements have been made. Sufficient sanitary accommodation has been provided; there are seventeen seat latrines for each barrack with additional night latrines and privacy is ensured in all cases. A complete medical staff with the necessary equipment has been detailed and any patient who may fall seriously ill will be transferred at once to the Civil Hospital, Ahmedabad.

It will be seen, therefore, from the above that all possible arrangements have been made by which, as regards their health and food and in other respects, the prisoners at Visapur will receive the same treatment as in an ordinary jail.

"DEVOTION TO INDIA FIRST."

—:o:—

Arya Samajists Support Congress.

A Meeting of the Managing Committee of the Bombay "Arya Samaj" was held on Wednesday night in the Hall of the "Samaj" at Girgaum. Sjt., Govindlal Shivlal Motilal, President of the "Arya Samaj" presided, when the following resolutions were adopted.

"In the opinion of this Committee it is the imperative duty of every Arya Samajist to join in and actively support the present non-violent and heroic struggle launched by Mahatma Gandhi and carried on under the banner of the Congress for the country's freedom. It is further of opinion that in doing so one should not emphasise his allegiance to any particular group or school of thought among the nation he belongs to, but to stand for his devotion to the Indian Nation of which he is a part.

"The National Flag represents the Nation as a whole and should be regarded as a common flag required by all her component parts. This "Flag" alone ought to be hoisted and carried by the Arya Samajists in this struggle."

HARWOOD LEAGUE FOOTBALL.

—:o:—

East Lancs Win By 3 Goals.

The Y. M. C. A. turned out a team weakened by the absence of Muller, Veal and Cow, who by the way are on tour with the B. B. and C. I. Railway team who are preparing for the Inter-Railway Football tournament when they were beaten by the East Lancs by 3 goals scored in the first half. The Y. M. C. A. put up a creditable show in the first half, Long being prominent with one or two good efforts which the goal-keeper had no difficulty in stopping. Feel, the centre forward of the Lancs, troubled the Y. M. defence and was responsible for the first goal with a stinging shot.

The Y. M. C. A. tired in the second half and though the Lancs tried hard to secure as many as possible their efforts lacked direction. Lyons for the soldiers playing at left half instead of his usual position at inside left was the outstanding player on the field and some of his shots deserved better fate.

Carter, the Y. M. goalie, was badly injured when he received a nasty kick in the shin five minutes before half time. He resumed 15 minutes after the resumption.

2 LAKHS FRAUD CASE.

Courts' Jurisdiction Questioned.

A full Bench of the High Court consisting of the Chief Justice, Mr. Beaumont, Mr. Justice Madgaokar and Mr. Justice Baker, decided a point of jurisdiction in a case where the business was conducted outside Bombay.

In this case Amratlal Amarchand, a big rice merchant of Bombay charged his two partners Jivandas Savchand and Dwarkadas Jivanchand with criminal breach of trust in respect of two sums of Rs. 2,00,000 and Rs. 58,610. The firm was doing business in rice at Rangoon where the first accused was in charge. The complainant was at the head office in Bombay where the second accused was also working. It was alleged that between October 1928 and November 1928, the first accused in collaboration with the second misappropriated the above sums by false entries in books and in the overdraft account of the firm in Allahabad Bank at Rangoon.

The accused were put up before Mr. Oscar Brown at the Mazagaon Police Court when their counsel questioned the court's jurisdiction on the ground that the alleged offence was committed at Rangoon. The Magistrate, however, held that he had jurisdiction. The accused appealed to the High Court. Justices Mirza and Broomfield doubted the correctness of the previous ruling of the High Court in a similar case (Emperor vs. Ramratan), and referred the case to a full Bench for final decision.

Accordingly, the Full Bench met to consider the point and decided that the Bombay Court had no jurisdiction.

LONDON, July 18.

Berlin.—In consequence of the Reichstag adopting by 236 votes to 221 Socialist motion to annul Hindenburg's emergency decree enacting Government's financial programme Reichstag was dissolved this morning and a general election will be held in six weeks' time. The overthrow of Bruening Government is mainly due to the fact that the majority of German nationals under Dr. Hugenberg voted for the Socialist motion owing to Bruening's rejection of Hugenberg's proposal that the Nationalists should be included in the Coalition Government against the Socialists. Bruening Government will continue in office pending election.—Reuter.

THE BOMBAY CHRONICLE
SATURDAY, JULY 19, 1930

THE IRWIN OVERTURES

—:o:—

It has been repeatedly dinned into our ears recently by official spokesmen from the Viceroy downwards that there can be no negotiation with the Congress until the Civil Disobedience movement is called off. That is obviously a bureaucratic bluff; for there is every indication to show that officialdom has begun to realise that it has over-reached itself in its campaign of "resolute government". There is a cryptic remark of Mr. MacDonald cabled by Reuter which deserves notice in this connection. The cable says: "Mr. MacDonald very strongly deprecated any sort of statement that the last hope of settlement had been destroyed. 'For, as a matter of fact, it is not true'." That last hope, evidently, is the inspired mission on which Sjts. Sapru and Jayakar have embarked. We have nothing but appreciation for the sentiments that have moved Sjts. Sapru and Jayakar to interview Mahatma Gandhi, Pundit Motilal Nehru and Pundit Jawaharlal Nehru in jail and the Viceroy to promise necessary facilities in that connection. Indeed, we congratulate all the three on this manifestation of an admirable public spirit. But, having done so, may we urge certain considerations which are vitally relevant to the present situation and its solution and which all three of them have ignored? In the first place, Sjts. Sapru and Jayakar should interview the imprisoned leaders, with Sjt. Vallabhbhai J. Patel, the Acting President of the Congress. Let us not be misunderstood. We have no doubt about the ability and integrity of Sjts. Sapru and Jayakar. But if they are going, as they say, "to persuade them to help in the restoration of normal conditions", it would be but natural for the three leaders, who have been entirely cut off now from the political world at least two of them are not allowed even newspapers worth the name—to want to study the present situation in all its bearings. Sjts. Sapru and Jayakar can, and, no doubt, will, do much to give the leaders a rough idea of the outside Indian world. But, with the very best intentions, they cannot be effective substitutes for the Acting President of the Congress who is leading the Congress movement in the absence of Gandhiji and the Nehrus. It is obvious that they will need to consult and discuss the position with the man they have entrusted with the duty of carrying on in their absence. In fairness to these leaders, as also to the country, therefore, the present head of the people should also accompany Sjts. Sapru and Jayakar.

Another point that, we feel, requires emphasis is the lack of appreciation of fundamentals on the part of the opponents of the Congress movement. Too much stress is being laid on amnesty, as if it were a good price for the co-operation of the Congress. This is a wrong and unfair attitude. Congressmen, leaders and their followers, have cheerfully borne all sorts of objectionable epithets applied to them in season and out of season, by high and by low, not merely to enjoy the novel fun of being called what they are not, but because of the most deep-seated sense of duty to their country. They have braved, without complaint, hardships and sufferings, which no man dare deny, not for the purpose of letting themselves out of jail at the first convenient opportunity but because they are wedded and wedded rightly and inseparably to the principle of complete freedom for India. We venture to emphasise this very obvious fact since too much insistence, on the part of non-Congressmen, upon the minor issue of amnesty is apt to make them forget the major fact of the problem.

If the Congress has refused and is refusing its support to the Round Table Conference it is because in its view the basis of the latter does not assure to India that freedom to which every other consideration must needs be subordinated. This view is strengthened by Sir George Rainy's speech in the Assembly a day after Lord Irwin's letter to Sjts. Sapru and Jayakar. Sir George criticised the Congress on its refusing the "reasonable and fair offer" of a Round Table Conference "except upon terms which neither His Majesty's Government nor the Government of India could contemplate because in effect that would have reduced the Conference to registering the decrees of the Congress." This, apart from being a grotesque but perfectly bureaucratic parody of a very legitimate demand, makes the country, twice as suspicious as before, of the 'bona fides' of the Round Table Conference. Then, the campaign in England to destroy the whole validity of the Round Table Conference from the Indian point of view cannot be dismissed by merely hoping, however earnestly and sincerely, for the best. The assurance contained in the Viceroy's letter to Mr. Jayakar contains nothing that is new and the Congress cannot accept it as an honourable basis for negotiation. We trust Sjts. Sapru and Jayakar will come back from their interviews convinced of the necessity of an assurance from the Viceroy along the lines indicated by Gandhiji and Motilalji in their interviews to Mr. Slocombe.

THE LOT OF THE "SUPPRESSED".

—:o:—

The Starte Committee on the Depressed and Backward Classes in the Bombay Presidency declare in their report: "The passing of resolutions will be of no avail until some remedy is found for the social boycott which is effectually barring the efforts of the depressed classes to insist on their common rights." Time and again have "caste" Indians who have devoted themselves to the cause of eradication of 'Untouchability' emphasized that literacy alone can effectively remove the prejudice that prompts this social boycott. But if there is one thing which officialdom has done, right from the time when Gokhale made his heroic but futile effort to persuade it to allow a rapid advance towards literacy to the present times, it is to starve financially all educational effort. Lala Lajpat Rai's resolution in the Assembly for the allocation of a handsome sum for the uplift of the Depressed classes came to nothing because officialdom offered lip sympathy but nothing else. The prejudice against the "depressed classes" is due to the fact that orthodoxy retains its hold on the illiterate masses. The moment this illiteracy is demolished, their outlook will become wider, their social conscience will awake, as it has fortunately become awake in the case of the educated younger men and women belonging to the middle classes. The Starte Committee's insistence on having common schools and throwing open all amenities of public life to the 'Untouchables' are commendable. They recommend greater public expenditure for their uplift but Government, as usual, will plead financial stringency. The 'stringency' will not disappear until the leaders of the "depressed" and backward classes fight shoulder to shoulder with the Nationalist elements in the country and help them in making their common Motherland mistress in her own house.

STANDING UP FOR INDIA

—:o:—

India will be grateful to Mr. Fenner Brockway and to Mr. Beckett for standing up for her in the House of Commons, though their action incurred the severe displeasure of the Speaker and official Labour. Mr. MacDonald's anxiety to stifle inconvenient queries about the present political situation in India, in order to placate the Opposition Parties, shows how very little the urgently pressing problem of satisfying India's National Demand is a 'major issue' with a Government whose members at annual conferences of the Labour Party dilate eloquently on India's misfortunes and desire to convey to the whole world that they alone have the courage to fight for the 'underdog'. But the enjoyment of political power changes men's views. The MacDonald Government have succeeded, very easily, indeed, in slipping into Tory shoes.

SPORTS AND COMMUNALISM

—:o:—

During thirty-six years of its existence, the Islam Gymkhana has steadily built up its reputation as one of the four premier sporting clubs of this city. Sir Ibrahim Rahimtoola has been its presiding genius for over twenty years, his predecessor being the late Mr. Justice Budruddin Tyabji. But the state of its affairs disclosed at its general meeting on Thursday was far from satisfactory. It can barely meet its expenses, and compared with other Gymkhanas its reserve fund is merely nominal. We entirely fail to see why it should be so. It has an excellent cricket ground; it provides tennis and billiards in addition, and has such an excellent situation on the Kennedy Sea Face as to commend itself to any sportsman who wishes to indulge in clean sport. Consistently with the Muslim outlook on the subject, it has nothing to do with drink or gambling; and it offers to youths the amenities of a healthy sporting club. By boycotting the Quadrangular and the M. C. C. matches it has also shown that the sporting Muslims of Bombay are not deaf to the nation's call. In these days of financial depression it would be futile to appeal for funds. But the subscription is very moderate, and when other clubs are beyond the means of the educated middle class, the membership of such an institution is an attractive proposition. An increased membership is the first necessity. The existence of communalism in sports is foreign to the present-day insurgence of Indian Nationalism and it is time steps were taken to reorganise the various Gymkhanas in the City on purely nationalistic lines. The Islam Gymkhana may well take the lead by inviting non-Muslims to become its members. We trust the Youths of Bombay will bestir themselves and see that the constitution of the Islam, Hindu and Parsi Gymkhanas is soon so radically changed as to transform them into truly national institutions.

THE REWARD.

—:o:—

The MacDonald Government have received their reward from the Liberal group who have been propitiated over the question of Indian policy and from that section of the Tories who wanted to make a demonstration against them by trying to defeat them with the help of the Liberals. The help was not forthcoming and the Tory firebrands knew that the censure motion, moved by their leader, Mr. Baldwin in the Commons on Thursday was only a gesture of discontent. The motion was thrown out by 312 votes to 241. Mr. Baldwin's contention that there should be "a wide extension of safeguarding and preference in every case for Dominions" was met by Mr. Snowden with the argument that the claim that safeguarding would ensure the home market was illusory. This is an argument in which a good many of the younger Tories believe. They have had sufficient experience of safeguarding and the "go-up show" of a censure motion closed according to expectations. The MacDonald Government know that they will not be turned out of office—just yet—and the Tories and Liberals know that it is good business to nag them now and then.

WORDS, WORDS.

—:o:—

The twenty-sixth biennial conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union began in the House of Lords on Wednesday, delegates of thirty-one countries participating in the session. We are not aware how many were invited from Asiatic countries, but the speeches made on the occasion indicate that the anxiety to secure peace which was emphasized in them referred mainly to the promotion of peace and closer union amongst the white nations of the world. Lord Cecil's warm tribute to M. Briand for having put forward his scheme of a European Federation is significant. From the Asiatic point of view that scheme is a grave menace, as it forebodes closer association of European nations for the scientific exploitation of Asia's economic resources. As regards disarmament, nothing practical has yet been really achieved by the European nations—and yet they talk of promoting international peace.

INDIA-QUO VADIS?

—?o?—

A WORD TO ENGLISHMEN IN INDIA.

To The Editor of "The Chronicle".

Sir,—"Magnanimity in politics is not seldom the truest wisdom, and a great Empire and little minds go ill together." (Extract from Burke's speech on Conciliation with America—March 22nd 1775). Thus wrote Burke 150 odd years ago. How different would the destiny of the English speaking world have been, if his advice had been followed? In these columns of "The Chronicle" I wish very earnestly to appeal to all British readers to remember that, in the present year of grace, we, the British people, shall have to make up our minds, once and for all, as to our future policy towards India. The Mahatma and the Congress gave us one whole year's grace to think it over, and we ought to know, we ought to have known long ago, that the general temper of politically minded India ever since 1917, has been distinctly hardening in the direction of a demand for an immediate and complete revision of the constitution. It is no exaggeration to say that the decision before the British people is as important even as that debated upon for so many long hours in 1775. The British Commonwealth of Nations, is the greatest political experiment ever attempted by man—greater even than the creation of the American Commonwealth because the latter had, apart from the Negro population, only those of European descent to deal with, and its territory was continuous. All races, whatever their creed or colour, ought to be able to find within the orbit of the Commonwealth, complete internal freedom, together with the great advantage of co-operation as equal partners, with other enlightened States for world peace and progress. In fact, if the "British Commonwealth of Nations" experiment proves to be practicable, then a precedent has been provided for a real League of Nations and the federation of mankind at some not far-distant date. But it all depends on whether India will agree to remain in the Commonwealth. For the Empire with India outside it,—is not worth looking at. It at once sinks to the level of Spain and if the "Diehards' and faint-hearts in England succeed in their efforts, it means that India will soon choose to go outside the Empire and no power on earth, or in heavens, will force her to remain inside.

If criticism can be directed against British Colonial policy in the last 150 years it is that of complete lack of imagination. We constantly fail to realize the "other fellow's point of view". We are constitutionally incapable of realizing the other fellow's point of view until it is too late. We have never made a genuine effort to understand the Indian point of view, exactly as we failed to realise the point of view of the American colonies in the eighteenth century. All the European nations before the American Revolution considered that 'Colonies' and all 'Plantations' should be governed in the interest of the "dear old home country". After the stupendous initial blunder in splitting the 18th century British Empire, subsequently British Governments saw to some extent the error of their ways, and were first to employ a more enligh-

NEW BENGAL ORDINANCE.

EXTENDING STATE SERVANT'S 'RESPONSIBILITY.'

(By FREELANCE.)

This week I was heaving a sigh of relief that there was no addition to the black chapter of Ordinances, when my attention was drawn to the new Bengal Ordinance. I cull the following from a Circular issued by the Bengal Government regulating the conduct of its servants. According to rule 5 of the new Bengal regulation (ordinary and extraordinary):—

"The attention of all Government servants should be drawn to the fact that they are held responsible for not only their own conduct, but also for that of their family and dependants. This responsibility has become all the more serious since the Congress and its allied associations have adopted the policy of using women picketers, and instances have come to the notice of Government where wives and daughters and other female relatives of Government servants have taken a prominent part in such picketing. Information has also been received of objectionable conduct by the sons and other male dependants of Government servants, and I am to request you to impress upon all Government servants that they will be held responsible if cases of misconduct by their family or dependants come to the notice of Government. It is the duty of every Government servant to see that those dependent upon him do nothing incompatible with his position as a loyal employee of Government in whose service he is."

* * * * *

This looks more like a papal bull than an official circular. I can understand Mr. Stewart's sartorial regulation banning Gandhi caps. But Mr. Hopkyns, Chief Secretary to the Bengal Government, has assumed for himself the dictatorial powers of the Pope and Mussolini. He seems to think that marriage and domestic relationship are mechanical arrangements which can be regulated by "on" and "off" in the switch board. Is a Government servant after all a robot?

* * * * *

The main objection to Mr. Hopkyn's process of manufacturing loyalty is that it is too Spartan in conception. It interferes with the personal liberty of the individual. When applied with retrospective effect it involves the repudiation of previous commitments and affections. It adversely affects the vested interests the first preference shareholders in a joint family concern and abrogates the first principles of even company law. I cannot subscribe to Mr. Hopkyns' theory that a man who is wedded to a Government post should not have a wedded wife of different political persuasion!

* * * * *

If Mr. Hopkyns is bent upon applying the circular with retrospective effect, then he should admit the family, relatives and dependents of a Government servant to Government service. If the exigencies of finance do not permit such a course of procedure, then he should issue a supplementary circular embodying the following suggestions:—

(1) The plea of Government service should be recognised as a valid cause by the Indian Law Courts to grant a divorce or judicial separation.

(2) The Government should pay compensation or maintenance charges, whichever the Court orders, from the State coffers, which they might recover by the imposition of a punitive tax on those who aid, abet, countenance or participate in the civil disobedience movement.

(3) The Government should take charge of unmarried daughters of Government servants who do not obey their father and carry national flag endangering his position as a loyal employee of the Government in whose service he is".

(4) They should educate them and find "eligibles" for them by starting a state matrimonial gazette, if need be.

(5) The Government servant should on a mere application be relieved of refractory sons who should be brought up and educated from the State coffers till they attain majority.

* * * * *

In case the circular is binding only from the date of the issue, complete immunity should be given to Government servants from responsibility for the acts of wife and children existing and conceived. At the same time, the Government should consider the desirability of popularising birth control literature among its servants. Much-married men in the Government service can be asked to retire on proportionate pension and new recruits can be called. The following clause should be inserted in any advertisement calling for recruits "Bachelors preferred. If such sufficient numbers are not forthcoming, married men with no encumbrances will be appointed". The following clause should be made the major condition for Government appointment: "Any person entering into marital relations after accepting Government service does so at his own risk. The Government will consider it only as a compassionate marriage which will be prolonged, or terminated by the written order of a superior officer for political reasons."

ther unsatisfactory." The Home Member, or, for that matter, any other official, did not rise to answer Mr. Chintamani, nor did the Government challenge a division when the resolution was declared carried. We have dealt at length with this debate to show how, on the showing of anti-Congress Indians, the agents of Law and Order are keeping Law and Order. Lucknow is no isolated instance. Yet every satrap who speaks gives an unqualified certificate to the police.

NOTES OF THE DAY.

—:o:—

A Guntur Daniel.

In dismissing the petition for rescinding the ban on Gandhi caps in Guntur district, the District Magistrate made some astonishingly jejune observations which should at once be noticed by the Government of Madras, his immediate superiors and the Government of India. The latter declared through Mr. Haig in the Assembly that they had no information about any ban on Gandhi caps. Mr. Benn in the Commons has no information. But this Guntur Daniel justifies the ban, exults, as it were, in its imposition by saying that it is a "sign of sympathy" with the Civil Disobedience movement." A number of people who do not participate in the movement but are anxious to promote Khaddar wear Gandhi caps but the Guntur Mussolini chooses to ignore this. As regards his remarks about the absence of Gandhi caps ten years ago as "part of the ordinary dress of the people" it is not for him to function as a sartorial dictator.

Lucknow Firing.

It will be recalled that as a sequel to a ban on processions in Lucknow certain "incidents" happened including the use of force and firing by the police on May 25 and 26. A non-official Committee of Inquiry was appointed composed exclusively of non-Congressmen and presided over by Mr. Habibullah, M.L.C., a very influential co-operator of Lucknow. The committee found that the police were guilty of grave excesses. The Government, however, appointed Mr. Leslie White, a Sessions Judge, to hold an inquiry. Mr. Leslie White's Report exonerated the police in every particular except that in the final stage of firing on May 26 "when the crowd was ultimately dispersed there was some wild firing by individual policemen and something in the nature of a pursuit." Mr. Habibullah, therefore, moved a resolution in the U. P. Council on July 15 recommending the Governor-in-Council not to accept Mr. Leslie White's findings on the Lucknow occurrences, but take suitable action against such officers and men as employed needless or excessive force or committed other excesses in dealing with the situation.

What Happened?

In his speech Mr. Habibullah urged that Mr. Leslie White's inquiry was vitiated from the very beginning by the facts that its terms of reference were narrow—this was admitted by the Finance Member also,—that the request made by him and others to the Home and Finance Members to add two Indian assessors to help Mr. White was "flatly refused" and that, therefore, people had no confidence in the Committee and many persons did not appear before him. Mr. Habibullah—who, it must be repeated again, is a friend of the bureaucracy—alleged that excessive force was used, that women were treated abominably, that processionists and spectators including women and children were mercilessly beaten and that the police entered private houses and beat men, women and children sheltered therein. Mr. Habibullah according to the report in the "Pioneer" further asserted that "the police was predetermined to open fire on some pretext or other," and "as for looting of shops he and other public men of Lucknow were convinced that it was done entirely by the police." Khan Bahadur Hafiz Hidayat Husain—another friend of the bureaucracy and, like Mr. Habibullah, one of the safest men from the Government's point of view—supported Mr. Habibullah and charged Mr. Leslie White with failure to sift the evidence properly and push matters to their logical conclusion.

Fantastic.

But all that Sir George Lambert, the Finance Member, could do in defence was to repeat allegations against the people—he actually suggested the possibility of another Chauri Chowra!—to describe Mr. Habibullah's speech as "fantastic" and belaud the impartiality and competence of Mr. Leslie White (did he suggest that Mr. Habibullah was partial and incomplete?). Mr. Chintamani, however, easily turned the tables on Sir George and proved how his own speech was fantastic. He referred to the evidence of officials themselves to show how Mr. White's findings went against the bulk of the evidence produced. Mr. Chintamani had a high regard for Mr. Leslie White, but a careful perusal of the report led him to the conclusion that it was "incomplete, superficial, perfunctory, weak, one-sided, obviously biased and altoge-

CONGRESS WEEK ACTIVITIES

The Threefold Path.

As the end of the "Congress Week" is approaching, the Congress volunteers and the Desh Sevikas have intensified their activities and brisk enrolment has been going on in the city.

On Friday, which was the fifth day of the Congress Week, again over a thousand volunteers and a large number of Desh Sevikas were engaged in the work.

Some new wall posters were in evidence yesterday one of which exhorted. The workers and peasants to rally round the Congress banner. It also declared that the Congress stood for the upliftment of the workers and peasants and to improve their lot was one of the chief objects of the Congress.

MEETINGS AT NIGHT.

At night, meetings in different wards were held which were addressed by Congress leaders who exhorted the audience to join the Congress in large numbers.

One of the meetings was held in the Govind Chauk in the Mulji Jetha Market. It was largely attended by cloth merchants and a good number of women were also present.

Mr. N. B. Deshpande presided over the meeting and Mr. Dikshit, Mrs. Ramibai Kamdar and others addressed it.

THE THREEFOLD PATH.

Mr. Dikshit in his speech described the threefold object of observing the Congress week. The first was to give a reply to the challenge thrown down by the Government by declaring the Congress Working Committee illegal. Secondly it aimed at eliminating all other political parties from the country and declaring that Congress was the only representative political organisation in the country. Thirdly it meant full support of the masses to the Congress creed of Complete Independence.

TODDY SHOP LICENSES

—:o:—

The Deadlock And Its Sequel

An interesting situation is likely to arise when the toddy shop licenses in the city of Bombay are put to auction at the Town Hall on Monday next.

The toddy shop vendors, at a meeting held on Friday, have decided to present a united front to the Government by offering no more than one anna six pies duty per gallon of toddy as against five and half annas offered during the previous years. They have also decided not to enter into competition with one another, but each one to bid for his own shop.

COLLECTOR'S OVERTURES.

It will be recalled that the Collector called for tenders for the licenses some time back and all the owners offered one anna six piece. The Collector then held several parleys with them and tried to induce them to improve their tenders. The latter remained firm and refused to make any advance under the plea that the boycott movement has told on the liquor sales. The Collector ultimately decided to hold the usual auction.

At the meeting of the toddy shop owners, it was stated that Government were likely to sell some shops to syndicates outside Bombay in order to obtain better prices. If the licenses are given away at one anna six pies, the loss in the Excise revenue of the Government is estimated at Rs. 3 lakhs this year.

TODDY PICKETER

—:o:—

Alleged Assault By A Sergeant.

Shankar Bhiva, a Congress volunteer, was picketing a toddy shop at Jail Road, Dongri, on Thursday, when a sergeant and four policemen came along and asked the name of the picket. He replied 'Vande Mataram'. At this the sergeant is alleged to have got wild and asked his men to hold the hand of the offender stretched. He then administered four thrashes on the left hand. As a result the thumb was badly fractured. He was treated at the Congress Hospital.

Mrs. R. S. Pandit Amongst Nationalist Christians.

Mrs. R. S. Pandit, the daughter of Pandit Motilal Nehru, who arrived from Allahabad only yesterday, graced the occasion of a Committee meeting of the Nationalist Christian Party at Mahendra Mansions, Esplanade Road, held on Friday evening. After group-photograph of the leaders of the Nationalist Christian Party with Mrs. R. S. Pandit in the centre having been taken, the chief guest of the evening delivered a stirring and spirited address and dealt with her experiences at Allahabad with the Indian Christian Community there. Mrs. Pandit applaued the efforts of the new party and said that she would fling back her rich political experience with Bombay Christian Youths when she would next face the reactionary elements amongst the Allahabad Christians.

She inspiringly concluded by declaring that "Christians, instead of remaining aloof, should definitely stand by the Congress". Amongst those that were present were Miss Ida Dickinson, Miss Tara Tilak, Mrs. Flossie Coelho, Miss Vaz, Mrs. Nabar, Laxmi Thaddani Messrs. Terence Guido, Raichand, (Secretary of Congress Boycott Committee) Malelu, Pnto, Charles Mascarenhas and Joachim Alva.

Indian Christians And National Movement.

VICTIM OF LATHI CHARGE.

Hindu & Muslims Attend Funeral.

Several thousand Hindu and Muslim mourners followed the funeral bier on Friday morning, of a young Muslim. Dawood Munshi, whose death occurred at the Congress Hospital the previous night.

Dawood, it is said, received serious injuries in the police lathi charges at Bori Bunder on Friday last. He was not a Congress volunteer, but was watching the eventful sequel of the Gharwal Day procession, standing among the crowds at Bori Bunder. On Tuesday 15th, he was removed in an unconscious condition from his home at Madanpur to the Congress Hospital. He never regained consciousness and died in the Hospital on Thursday night by a concussion of the brain. He had marks of injuries on the back when he was admitted in the Hospital. His brother and wife were by his bed-side when he breathed his last.

The funeral took place on Friday morning. At about 11 a.m. his dead body was taken out in a procession Several thousand Hindus and Muslims following his last remains to the Queen's Road Muslim Cemetery. Starting from the Congress House, the procession marched along Grant Road Madanpura, J. J. Hospital, Bhendi Bazar, Pydhonie and reached the Jumma Masjid via Abdul Rehman Street.

BIG PROCESSION.

Mr. Haji Noor Mohamad Ahmad, Seth Ahmad Haji Siddiq Khatri, Mr. Sirajuddin Wasi and several other prominent Muslims accompanied the procession. There were representatives of almost every section of the Muslim community. There was a party of Sikhs headed by Sardar Jamia Singh. The procession reached Juma Musjid at about 12-30 p.m.

After the usual Friday prayer funeral prayers were offered by thousands of Muslims. Maulana Abdul Munim Baatzer the Khateeb of the Juma Mosque led the prayers.

After the prayers the dead body was conveyed to the cemetery.

There was no inquest on the dead body but the Doctor's certificate stated that death was due to "meningitis."

DEATH OF ANOTHER VOLUNTEER.

The death occurred on Thursday evening of another Congress volunteer serving a term of imprisonment in the Arthur Road Jail. Kishore Yesha, the deceased, was a Congress volunteer of Palghar and was convicted for taking part in the Wadala raids. He was removed to the J. J. Hospital on Tuesday last and died of kidney trouble. The Congress authorities sent for his relatives from Palghar and the funeral took place in the evening.

CORONER'S INQUEST.

The Coroner held an inquest touching the death of Keshav Yesu who died in the J. J. Hospital on Thursday. The Senior Medical Officer of the Arthur Road Jail stated that the deceased was admitted as convict in Arthur Road Jail on 18th June last. On the 10th July he complained of fever and was admitted in the jail's hospital. Having not made any improvement he was removed to the J. J. Hospital on the 15th July where it was ascertained that he was suffering from kidney trouble. The Resident Medical Officer of the J. J. Hospital in his evidence said that the death was due to kidney trouble. The jury returned a verdict of death due to kidney trouble.

PANDIT MOTILAL'S CONVICTION.

—:o:—

Govt. Admit Illegality.

BUT SENTENCE STANDS

ALLAHABAD, July 18.

Sir Grimwood Mears, Chief Justice and Mr. Justice Sen examined the record of the trial of Pandit Motilal Nehru and Syed Mahmud. Mr. Gopinath Kunzru, as a member of the Bar requested the court to postpone the case for ten days as he wanted to help the court by stating the other side of the case, and meantime consider the position and possibly, after that period it might not be necessary to argue the case. Mr. Kunzru added that he was not instructed to appear for the accused, but appeared to assist the Court with its permission: The Court did not grant the adjournment.

GOVT. ADMIT ILLEGALITY.

The Government Advocate, Mr. Bajpai, informed the Court that he had authority and instructions from the Local Government to concede that the conviction under Section 17, Criminal Law Amendment Act, was illegal. Mr. Bajpai submitted that the Conviction under Section 117, I.P.C. was perfectly legal.

The Chief Justice, in passing orders, said that the record of the case was sent for under the Court's power of superintenence and revision. As regards the conviction under Section 17, Criminal Law Amendment Act, their Lordships thought that in the circumstances, the proper course had been taken by the Local Government.

Everybody understood how the mistake arose. Everyone in the court on the date of the trial knew for a certainty that the Act was extended to the provinces. The text of the Act was in the court. In newspapers and nobody doubted its authenticity, but the failure to produce a copy of the Gazette Extraordinary left a broken link in the chain of evidence and as the Local Government realised that the conviction and sentence under Section 17, Criminal Law Amendment Act, could not be supported. That conviction must be set aside. As regards the conviction under Section 117, I.P.C., their Lordships remarked that the attack against it referred to the proof of the handwriting of the accused.

It was alleged that neither Mr. Measures, the Superintendent of Police nor the Sub-Inspector gave a sufficient degree of proof. When the evidence was given, it was not challenged. There was no cross-examination. The witnesses gave, according to the evidence, sufficent proof, and complied with the provisions of the law. Their Lordships found that the exhibits filed showed that Pandit Motilal Nehru and Dr. Syed Mahmud were members of the Working Committee which passed the resolution calling upon the country to disobey the Ordinances, and therefore Their Lordships were of the opinion that the conviction was unassailable and the conviction and sentence must stand.—A. FOREIGN CLOTH SHOPS TO BE PICKETED AGAIN.

Because Shop-keepers Have Failed To Keep Their Promises.

There are strong rumours in the city that of cloth merchants who had given a pledge not to sell foreign cloth in future, many are not keeping their word and have been dealing in foreign cloth as before.

There is a general feeling of resentment against this attitude of merchants and a section of the local Congress workers and the general public strongly support the idea, that in view of the situation created by the merchants' going back on their word, it has become necessary that the Congress should again resort to picketing of foreign cloth shops.

In some quarters the opinion is also expressed that instead of wasting the energies of Congress volunteers and Desh Sevikas on picketing toddy and liquor shops, it would be much more effective to utilise their services for picketing foreign cloth shops and making the boycott of foreign cloth a complete success.

STOP SALES OF FOREIGN CLOTH.

It is understood that the "War Council" at one of its recent meetings discussed the situation and has already issued notices to all the dealers in foreign cloth asking them definitely to stop further sales of foreign cloth.

They have been given one week's time to consider the matter and if they do not give a definite assurance to the Congress Committee by July 26, the Committee intends to resume picketing of all foreign cloth shops in the city.

There is also a feeling in the public mind that picketing alone will stop the sale of foreign cloth in the city and that any number of promises from merchants will be of no use. This belief is strengthened, as people are aware of the small sales of foreign cloth in the city when the Desh Sevikas were engaged in that work, and it is hoped that with the help of a larger number of volunteers much better results can be achieved.

POONA RACES.

Picketing At Victoria Terminus

Bombay is likely to witness another novel form picketing during the course of the next week. It is understood that with a view to put a stop to the evils of racing and the consequent loss to the race-goers and especially to the middle classes the local "War Council" has decided to start a campaign against the races. The Poona season commences from July 26, and as usual a large number of people will be proceeding to Poona on the occasions of weekly and bi-weekly meetings.

The "War Council" has decided to start picketing at the gates of the Victoria Terminus and to persuade the race-goers not to proceed to Poona and to boycott the races.

BOMBAY COUNCIL CONDEMNS SERGEANTS' EXCESSES

Home Member Withdraws Bill To Give Police Drastic Powers.

INDEPENDENT ENQUIRY REFUSED.

POONA, July 18.

When the Council met to-day Sir Ernest Hotson, Home Member, introduced a Bill to amend the Bombay City Police Act. He said that it was only a collection of amendments, which had been published at various times and had no connection whatever with the present movement of Civil Disobedience.

Clause 5 of the Bill giving new powers to police sergeants and sub-inspectors to disperse crowds was attacked by the members very vehemently.

Mr. A. N. Surve suggested that the Bill might be withdrawn and brought forward on another occasion. He drew attention to the fact that the whole of Bombay was talking of police excesses and the Bhendi Bazaar riot affair was still fresh in their minds.

Mr. P. J. Murzban was ready to support the measure if it was not to be immediately enforced. He had seen sergeants beating men while they were falling on the ground and these people were not capable of keeping their heads cool on such occasions.

Mr. R. S. Athawle did not favour the idea of giving additional powers to sub-inspectors and sergeants.

After tea interval the Home Member made a statement that he was prepared to delete clause 5 of the Police Bill, which sought to extend the powers of sub-inspectors and police sergeants.

The statement was received amidst cheers.

Earlier in the day, the House resumed consideration of the bill further to amend the Indian Registration Act 1908 in its application to the presidency of Bombay.

Mr. B. V. Jadhav moved that the Bill be read clause by clause.

The motion was agreed to.

The Bill was then read a third time and passed into law.

QUESTIONS.

Questions regarding the recent Shoapur disturbances were asked at to-day's meeting of the Bombay Legislative Council. Haji Mir Mahomed Baloch, (Karachi City), wished to know. (a) Whether the attention of the Government had been drawn to the statements of Laiji Naranji and Mr Walchand Hirachand puolished in certain newspapers; (b) If so, what is the Government's reply to the specific charges brought against the police and the military during and after the disturbances? (c) Why was martial law introduced and why was it continued after the circumstances had changed. (d) Is it a fact that the police insulted all people who wore Gandhi caps?

SERGEANTS' BEHAVIOUR.

(e) Have the Government made any inquiry into the alleged naughty and provocating behaviour of three European sergeants. If so what is the result of the enquiry? (f) Is it a fact that Mr. Mackie, the Commissioner of the Division, never left his headquarters and directed operations from there? (g) Is it a fact that soldiers in a patrol lorry shot down people indiscriminately?

Sir Ernest Hotson replied: (a) Yes. (b) and (c)—Hon'ble Member's attention is invited to press notes dated May 19 and May 20, 1930, and July 2, 1930, issued by the Director of Information copies of which are placed on the Council table. (d) No. (e) The Government are fully satisfied as a result of inquiries made on the spot, that there is no foundation for the allegations made against European police officers employed at Sholapur. (f) No. (g) No. Haji Mir Mahomed Baloch further asked:—Do the Government propose to appoint an independent commission of inquiry into the conduct of the police, civil officers, military officers and the mob? Sir Ernest Hotson replied:—The Government have now decided that there shall be no such inquiry.

Syed Ataullah Shah Bukhari, perhaps the most effective Urdu speaker in the country whose oratory has converted thousands of Muslims to the Congress creed wherever he has gone.

"SWARAJ IS COMING."

IMPRESSIONS AFTER A VISIT TO CONGRESS HOSPITAL.

Miss Slade (Mirabehn) visited the Congress Hospital on Thursday and evinced a keen interest in the work of the Hospital.

Writing her impressions in the Visitor's Book, she says:—

"I have seen several Hospitals lately filled with wounded victims of the lathis charge. To-day, the cases I have seen, have been practically bad— the last case, a dying Musselman with his wife and brother sitting by.

"The more I see of these things the more clearly I know that Swaraj is coming faster and faster. The work, of this Hospital is a noble service."

Boycott In Bandra.

—:o:—

(From A Correspondent.)

BANDRA, July 18.

A largely attended public meeting was held in Bandra on Thursday night when Miss Mani Chubb presided and speeches were made in support of the boycott movement. Mr. Nanavati proved by facts and figures how the economic policy of Britain was ruinous to India. Dr. Suratkar in a thrilling and humorous speech pleaded for a complete boycott of foreign cloth.

Miss Chubb in winding up the meeting remarked that Britain was the cause of the present deplorable condition of this country.

"AT HOME" IN INDIA HOUSE

—:o:—

900 Guests Present.

LONDON, July 18.

A brilliant assemblage of British and Indian guests was present at India House last night, on the occasion of the first "At Home" given by Sir A. C. and Lady Chatterjee since the opening of the new building. There were about 900 guests including Mr. and Mrs. Benn and other Cabinet Ministers representatives of Dominions and Diplomatic Corps, Indian Princes, Lord Mayor and other Civic representatives. They were received by Sir A. C. and Lady Chatterjee in the Library. They subsequently toured the building and inspected the gifts of the King and Queen and the display of Indian arts and crafts.—Reuter.

AMERICAN COTTON MARKET.

Unfavourable Weather And Absence Of Precipitation.

MARKET QUIET BUT FIRM

Bombay, July 18.

Absence of rains over draught sections and unfavourable weather forecast for the Western Belt were responsible for the steadiness on the New York Cotton Exchange yesterday. The market was quiet but firm and there was absence of selling pressure. The crop in the Central and Eastern Belts is progressing favourably and while the weather is rather unfavourable over one-third of the belt, there is no sign of any buying. Prices fluctuated within a range of 14 points and finally closed at a rise of 10 to 12 points. Spot cotton prices closed unchanged at 13.15c.

The New Orleans Cotton futures market was irregular. July option closed at a decline of 1 point while October advanced 9 points. Spot cotton prices advanced 9 points to 12-78c.

The Liverpool Cotton futures market opened at a rise of 3 points and reports of unfavourable weather caused further improvement particularly for new crop months. The market closed at a rise of 4 to 7 points. Middling American spot cotton prices declined 1 point to 7.64 and sales amounted to 3,000 bales.

Empire cotton futures closed at a rise of 3 to 4 points and Egyptian prices rose 7 points.

It is a weather market and as usual at this time of the year the crop is deteriorating to some extent. The total deterioration so far seems below normal and there is no inducement to buy cotton. The market entirely depends upon weather developments, but looking to the general state of cotton industry, there seems little prospect for any sustained improvement in prices. In the meantime the annual figures indicating carry-over will be out which is likely to add atleast 12½ million bales to the balance with which the present season com-

Liverpool:—"Market apathetic in spite of still dry Texas Central Belt. Dry weather is causing anxiety in the Western Belt. Unfavourable weather prediction. The market has an ever-sold appearance."
Reuter:—"Market is quiet but firm on absence of selling influenced by absence of rain in drought sections and unfavourable western belt forecast."

Messrs. Breul and Co., have received the following cable dated 17th instant (5 p.m.) from their Liverpool friends Messrs. Reynolds and Gibson:—

"With trade conditions continuing as they are we prefer conservative sales on all advances due to crop scares."

NEW YORK.
"Quiet but steady. General feeling is better and any favourable feature will cause an advance. Trade condition shows some little improvement. Piece-goods and yarn steadier. More inquiry."

LATE NAWAB OF RAMPUR.

Maintained Tanssn Traditions.

The last link in the live traditions which constituted the cultural prestige of the Mughal Courts has been removed with the death of the Nawab of Rampur. He was a great musician and a great patron of learning, art and culture. He maintained not only a large number of practising musicians he maintained also the disciplined austerity of taste expected from one who was proud to keep intact the artistic standards and traditions of Tansen, the famous musician of the Court of Akbar. "Even the best exponents and practitioners of Hindusthanee music were," said Pundit Vishnu Narayen Bhatkhande, one of the most reputed of his pupils and friend, interviewed by a representative of the "Chronicle," in the presence of the late Nawab, apt to be nervous.

So great was their respect towards one who was as great an artist as he was great as a patron, Their respect mingled with nervous awe, was a tribute to the Nawab's profound knowledge and passion for Hindusthanee music." Pundit Bhatkhande narrated a characteristic incident. A "binkar" of some note once visited the court. But before he could have audience with the "Sarkar" he had, naturally, to satisfy the "Home Secretary" of the "Sarkar," who was himself a reputed expert player on the "Sur Sringar." The visiting musician, with the confidence born of ignorance, particularly of the character of his audience, requested the Nawab's Secretary to make the choice for the melody he liked him to play. "Since you so desire, Ustadji play one Tilak, kamod" The answer from the Secretary was swift and searching. When, at last, the "Ustad," left the place he left it with the feeling that he knew nothing of "Dhrupadas" and that a "binkar" without knowledge of the "Dhrupad" style was a "binkar" without knowledge of a "binkar" only in name. Pundit Bhatkhande could narrate many incidents of a similar nature revealing the high standard of artistic traditions the late Nawab of Rampur advocated. He was unrivalled in his grasp of "laya." He played the "kartal" with complete mastery and perfect taste. One of his favourite saying was:—"Punditji, 'Tal' would die with my death." He did not exaggerate. He was, if one could so describe, a terror even for "Jalhwajis".

LIBRARY TREASURES.

The late Nawab of Rampur was preserved the library containing a rare collection of Persian and Urdu manuscripts on music, art and culture. The 'Sangit Paript" with Mahomed Shah's seal and the "man kutuhal" of Raja Mansingh of Gwalior both rendered into Persian could be, said Pundit Bhatkhande, mentioned as examples of the priceless measures the ples of the priceless measures the library has preserved. "These rare manuscripts ought to be," he added, "now translated, preferably by some reputed University or institte of scholarly research."

DESERVED TRIBUTE.

"No service that we could render to preserve the memory and continue the work of the great exponent, patron, student and lover of Hindusthanee music would be," observed Pundit Bhatkhande, too great. The institution of university chairs and scholarships in his name would be, of course, one of the ways of doing so. But I should suggest that a school of Hindusthanee music founded and organised in Rampur would be of the best ways of continuing the traditions set by the late Nawab. The number of practising musicians he has been maintaining and at present resident in the State, would serve as the intiative nucleus for the school. If the idea is taken up, I shall be, he answered, "only too happy to render whatever help I can in the organisation of the school. I shall consider it a privilege. For the late Nawab was my "guru" and esteemed colleague. The least the State could do would be to lend the services of its musicians to an institution like the Marris College of Music at Lucknow.

Students and exponents of Hindusthanee music, all over India, loo kup to the States to take the mitiative, preserves the memory of the great artist and patron and to continue his noble cultural traditions. It would be difficult to exaggerate the degree of gratitude they feel towards the late Nawab for maintaining the highest standards of Hindusthanee music. He was Akbar as much as he was Tansen. We need both for the lasting rejuvenation of Hindusthanee Music."

THE TRAP.

—:o:—

Help Khadi Production.

Miraben writes:—

Just a fortnight before his arrest, Gandhiji wrote in a letter to me:—

"I am moving from place to place and concentrating on spinning. Boycott of Foreign Cloth will be a trap without spinning. And Takli is the one thing to make spinning universal. You will, therefore, do whatever is possible to manufacture more Khadi there."

The memory of these words has never left me day or night. Here in Gujarat we are doing the best we can to put Khadi production on a sound basis, but all the while I feel a certain lack of real understanding and interest on the part of so many who should be leading the country in this matter.

When I see such a lot of attention being paid to Boycott propaganda—to this, to that, in fact, to every sort of activity 'except' serious Khadi production, I become deeply troubled, and these words of Gandhiji ring louder and louder in my heart.

"Spin, spin, spin and produce Khadi! Otherwise it will all be a trap."

Now the fact is the masses have gone far ahead of us this time. On all sides they are calling out for Taklis, for Charkhas, and, above all, for our help in organisation. How easy the way has been made for us.

Let us forget all side-issues and distinctions, and, turning neither right nor left, march straight along the road of pure Khadi production.

But even as I write these words I can hear the inevitable question being raised: "Why do you not include Indian mills in your scheme?"

Indian mills are not excluded from the scheme; they will, of course, help in their right place. But our concern is with khadi.

THE FUNDAMENTAL OBJECTIVE.

Is not the fundamental objective of our foreign cloth boycott to give back to village life, which is 90 per cent. of the life of India, a sound economic basis? To give back to the starving millions of our distressed land their home industry without which they are bound to die a lingering death? The mills cannot do this, for the peasants must not leave their fields. And, then, putting the question of agriculture aside, even if it were in any way possible to set up sufficient mills to supply the whole of India's cloth require-ments, they could not solve the unemployment problem. Millions and millions of poor peasants would still remain starving and without work.

No—the ideal of our Foreign Cloth Boycott movement is to establish, once more, a decentralized industry which can flourish throughout the length and breadth of the land, and make India 'happy'.

Let us look further, and we shall see that the whole conception of our Swaraj movement is for the benefit of the masses. The salt campaign, the drink campaign, the land-tax campaign—in everything our ideal is to rehabilitate the suffering millions.

So first and foremost in our Boycott movement, let us concentrate on Khadi—for Khadi is the bulwark of the Indian Poor.

MIRA.

WORLD'S LUCKIEST GAMBLER.

There is one man, a Greek, who makes a fortune each year out of gamblers. He is to be found at each of the Continental gambling resorts—Deauville, Le Touquet, and the rest—at the particular season. His name is M. Zographos, and he is the head of what the world's gamblers know as the Greek Syndicate.

An intimate portrait of him is given in "—And the Greeks," by Charles Graves. He met him in the Casino at Deauville.

Imagine sixty people clustered round an oval table playing baccarat. Twenty of them are gambling on either side of M. Zographos, the small, dark Greek with the sunburnt skin, haunted eyes, high forehead, and imperceptible fatigue.

In front of him are a pyramid of white oval "biscuits" or gambling counters, worth £8,000 each, three feet of obiong red and blue £80 "biscuits," neatly parked on the green baize table, and a flood of transparent discs worth £8 each. In all, there is £3,000 before him; £18,000 of it represents his winnings for the afternoon.

Here he sits, afternoon after afternoon and night after after night, while the rich men of France, the United States, South America, Italy, and of Turkey and Egypt, bring their cheque-books and their cash and try to break his luck. As we stand and watch he wins another £3,000, lights a cigarette, waits a moment and then, the cards being exhausted, makes a movement as if to close the session. But he is urged to continue. He does so, a trifle wearily, and wins heavily again.

The mathematical odds in his favour are only guineas to pounds. But the psychological odds are tremendous. The punter who is winning does not plunge when he should. He plunges when he is losing and the luck is running against him.

GUMS NEED MASSAGE.

—:o:—

Why does one use a Turkish towel with which to rub the body vigorously after a bath or after a chilling exposure to rain and sharp winds? And for what reason beside that of enjoying the beauty of colour does one admire the glow which comes into the breeze-stung cheeks?

How many know that a healthy tooth in a rosetinted gum is pleasing to look at for the same reason. It is not only beautiful, but it is a promise of health.

A gum which is bluish red, too pale in colour, or too brilliant a red, is not healthy. A gum which is coral-pink is a healthy gum.

The colour of a gum is due to the circulation and, as elsewhere in the body, rubbing stimulates the circulation. Consequently, brushing of the teeth is not sufficient. There should be connected with the daily brushing a careful attention to the massaging of the gums.

Not so vigorous a friction as to cause irritation and soreness of the gums, of course! But such an amount of pressure with the brush as to first blanch the gum and to be followed by a flush and a sense of warmth in the entire gum tissue.

If one is not accustomed to massaging to the gums with his brush he should begin at once to do so, but he must begin with the utmost care and gentleness lest his gums being sensitive, and through lack of massage, be made sore.

POONA DAY BY DAY.

ANNIVERSARY OF G. V. JOSHI.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
POONA, July 16.

The anniversary of Sarvajanik Kaka, as the late Mr. G. V. Joshi, was endearingly called, was observed on Tuesday evening in Sarvajanik Sabha Hall. The Sarvajanik Sabha is his monument and that body must be said to be the father of political agitation in Maharashtra. Mr. R. G. Boide of "Kesari" office delivered a speech on the late Mr. Joshi's life and doings under the presidentship of Mr. J. S. Karandikar. The speaker dealt mainly with the following five movements which Sarvajanik Kaka originated in Poona for the first time when political consciousness was yet unborn, i.e., in 1860-70 and onwards:—1. The Swadeshi movement. 2. The uplift of women. 3. Agricultural movement. 4. Foreign propaganda and 5. Association of journalists. Particularly, he was the soul of the Swadeshi movement and the movement for getting relief for the ryot in the dire famine days. In the end, the speaker suggested that an industrial survey of Maharashtra should be carried out and attempts to revive the lost industries should be made. The president regretted that the movements started more than fifty years ago, should have to be continued even up to the present time. He said that the late Mr. Joshi's far-sightedness was evident from the activities of which he was the founder and the promoter.

MESSRS. GORE AND KHADILKAR.

Since I wrote yesterday about the treatment given to Mr. Gore and Mr. Khadilkar, in the Yeravda jail, I am given to understand that they were caned and that the sore were seen by some jail-visitor who had also made his report thereon.

The relatives of Messrs. D. V. Gokhale, N. V. Gadgil and others saw them in the Thana jail last Saturday. Mr. N. V. Gadgil is said to have lost four pounds in weight.

HEALTH OF THE CITY.

The report of the health of the city in the month of June has been published by the Municipal Health Officer. The total number of deaths was 400 as compared with 372 of June of 1929. Out of this, infant mortality was 141. The figures according to the diseases are as under:—Malaria 21, Enteric fever 12, Unknown fevers 64; Pneumonia 18; Phthisis 47; other respiratory diseases 39; Diarhoea 25, Small-pox 1; Measles 4, deaths from all other causes 167. The rains and the change of water have perhaps brought in a spell of fever in the City. But generally, the health of the city seems to be satisfactory.

Professor Sahasrabudhe delivered an informative lecture on village reform in the Prarthana Samaj Hall.

One Kama Thakar of Khed Taluka was sentenced to three years' hard labour for hurting his wife. The wife refused to stay with him and hence on the way he beat her. He submitted himself to the police after the wife was dead in a jungle and made a confession.

CONFLICTING VERDICT OF THANA JURY.

—:o:—

High Court Acquits Accused

The Chief Justice and Justice Madgaokar at the High Court heard a reference made by the Sessions Judge of Thana who disagreed with the verdict of the jury in a case of rape.

The accused Posha was alleged to have ravished a 19-year old Gungi who was living with her husband. The accused had married the sister of Gungi's husband, but had discarded her and had married two other wives. The accused was on terms of intimacy with Gungi, and he called her in his house as she was going out for work. According to the prosecution, he forcibly ravished her, but his defence was that she had consented.

The jury gave the verdict that accused was guilty of rape, but that the woman had previously consented. The trial Judge thought that the verdict of consent was perverse, and was inconsistent with the verdict of guilty. He pointed this out to the jury who replied that the fact of intimacy between the two led them to the conclusion that the woman had consented. The Judge disagreed with the verdict and referred the case to the High Court.

The Chief Justice and Mr. Justice Madgaokar in disposing of the reference held that on the circumstances the jury's opinion was justified that the woman had consented. On this verdict the accused should be acquitted.

MR. BHARUCHA IN CALCUTTA.

—:o:—

Swadeshi Propaganda.

(From Our Correspondent.)
CALCUTTA, July 14.

A meeting of the Gujrati ladies under the auspices of the Gujarati Stree Mandal was held on Sunday afternoon (July 13) which was addressed by Mr. B. F. Bharucha of Bombay who has come here for Khadi propaganda. Sir P. C. Ray and Mrs. Hem Probha Das Gupta were also present and addressed the gathering. There were more than three hundred Gujarati ladies present and great enthusiasm prevailed.

Sreemati Soudamini Mehta, Secretary of the Mandal, welcomed Sjt. Bharucha and the other guests and referred to Mr. Bharucha's services in the national cause especially in evoking national consciousness among the Parsis in Bombay. Sjt. Bharucha made an eloquent speech exhorting Gujarati ladies to spin and wear Khadi, picket foreign clothes and liquor shops and contribute in various other ways towards the success of the freedom movement.

Acharya Roy being requested to address the gathering delivered the message of Charkha which created a deep impression on the audience.

GREAT HOUR FOR INDIA

—:o:—

Germany's Interest In Her Freedom Movement.

A Parsi lady in Bombay has received the following letter from a German friend:—

Germany, June.

Sister dear,

I want to thank you for sending me those papers. My husband and I we are following with the best of our hearts and thoughts the events in India. Naturally we know only what papers report and where therefore so thankful for what you sent us.

I feel how intensively you are living now. Yes, it is a great hour for India—and for the whole world, and you may be sure that many, many unknown friends are with you.

My husband read Gandhiji's letter. (Gandhiji's first letter to the Viceroy) at school with his advanced pupils. They were very interested, because so much of it was quite new to them. So, you see all material what you can sent us, will try to spread some love for India.

INDIAN STEEL FOR CHITPUR BRIDGE.

Lathi Charge On College Pickets

CALCUTTA, July 16.

The Calcutta Corporation approving estimate amounting to Rs. 2,64,000 forwarded by Chairman of Improvement Trust for reconstruction of Chitpur Bridge agreed to contribute twenty per cent. towards the expenditure on condition Indian steel was used.

Picketing at college gates continued as usual. Following a lathi charge by the police on picketers, some of whom were injured, three-fourths of the students of Presidency College left classes in a body as a protest. Five picketers were arrested.—A. P.

ANTI-CONGRESS PROCESSION.

—:o:—

To The Editor of The "Chronicle."

Sir,—I shall be very much obliged if you will allow some space in your esteemed paper for favour of giving publicity to my national views against "The Anti-Congress Procession" in whatever form in so far as it claims to represent a Musalman view.

On the 16th instant I was very much relieved when I read the views of Mr. "Z" under the caption "A Disclaimer" which I fully endorse. Further, the so-called processionists being very small in number and incapable of understanding politics can never represent the view of Bombay Mussalmans. I, therefore, have reason to believe that such a procession is not worth noticing, for the simple reason that mischief has been played.

In conclusion, from what I have read and heard of I am convinced that the Mussalmans of whole India (majority) are joining the Congress or at least they are in favour of the Congress.—Yours, etc.

WHY BLOW HOT AND COLD?

—:o:—

To The Editor of The "Chronicle."

Sir,—The attitude of the Liberals towards the present movement is incomprehensible. They blow hot and cold by the same breath. A few days ago they said that they want a definite declaration from the Viceroy as to the real purpose of the R.T.C. to be held in London and now the very same Liberals are satisfied even though no definite terms of reference or personnel of the Conference have been given out. The declaration by the Viceroy exactly compares with a mirage cartoon recently published in some daily paper.

The Liberals say they have the same goal as the Nationalists but that they differ only in methods.

But is not the public well aware by this time of their "Methods" which are equivalent of "petitions" "requests" "mild protests" and "pious resolutions" (without being followed by any action).

The Liberals say they don't get any hearing when they try to induce the people for this movement well, is the public to be blamed for that? Have the Liberals ever respected public opinion? Have they not in majority of cases, voted with Government in the Councils and Assembly? Have they ever shown in action their resentment against Government for their present ruthless repression?

The Liberals must not blame the people, if the latter have lose confidence in Government as well as these Liberals as neither of them have done anything so far on the basis of which they can be relied upon.—Yours, etc.

INCREASE IN BOMBAY'S RAINFALL.

—:o:—

POONA, July 17.

The Bay storm is centred this morning about sixty miles off Saugor Island and has caused widespread heavy rain in South Bengal. The monsoon has been active in Bihar, Central Provinces, East Central India, United Provinces, South-west Punjab and Bombay Deccan.

Rainfall has been nearly general in Lower Burma, Bengal, Orissa, Chota Nagpur, West United Provinces, East Central Provinces, Konkan, Bombay/Deccan and North Hyderabad; local in Upper Burma, Assam, Bihar, East United Provinces, Central India, Punjab South, Hyderabad; and North Madras Coast; while a few falls have occurred in West Central Provinces, Baluchistan, Gujarat and Malabar.

Forecast:—Rainfall will decrease in southeast Bengal, West United Provinces and Punjab and increase in Chota Nagpur, Orissa, Circars Coast, East Central Provinces; Bombay Deccan and Konkan.

Heavy rainfall warning:—Locally heavy falls are likely in Southwest Bengal; Orissa and the adjoining parts; East Central Provinces and North Madras Coast.—A. P.

MEETINGS PROHIBITED IN LIMBDI.

State Nominates New Mahajan.

WADHWAN, July 15.

The Limbdi State has prohibited public meetings. As a protest against this, the local Mahajan observed hartal. In order to suppress the movement of the Mahajan the State has issued a notice in an extraordinary issue of the "Darbari Gazette", by which a new Mahajan has been nominated by the State, representing 19 communities. Each will have, it is said, one vote and one member from each community will constitute the Working Committee. This Mahajan will decide when a hartal should be observed in the State.—Free Press.

MR. SWAMINARAYAN JAILED.

Magistrate's Judgment.

The following is the text of judgment delivered by Mr. G. M. Isana, Sub-Divisional Magistrate, Dholka PJrant convicting Mr. J. C. Swaminarayan to six months' imprisonment:—

The facts of the case are that through a printed leaflet (Ex: 1(B) Jahersabhas or public meetings of cultivators were advertised to take place at Koth, Dholka and Rupavati. They were timed as under:—

Koth. Sunday 22nd 2-0 p.m.
Dholka, Sunday 22nd, 6-30 p.m.
Rupavati, Monday 23rd, in the evening.

In all these meetings Mr. Swaminarayana was to preside. In fulfilment of this advertised programme a meeting was held on Sunday the 22nd June at Koth at noon-time. This was a gathering of about 300 villagers from 8 or 10 different villages. The first speaker was Mr. Samrathlál and he was followed by Mr. Swaminarayan. Among other things Mr. Swaminarayan pressed upon the attention of his listeners that the Mukhis and Matadars who have resigned should be assisted, that no help should be given in Government work, that no payment of land revenue should be made to the public exchequor and also no payment should be made to the helpers of Government. Koth speech lasted for an hour and a half. This was followed by another speech before a meeting held at Dholka on the same evening. This speech was of one hour's duration and the audience came to about 225 people. The gist of the second speech was that Government should be told that not a pie of taxes would be paid until Swaraj is granted, that the arrangement for non-payment of taxes should be so effective that the exchequer should not really be able to collect a single pie from taxes and that all helpers of the administration should be boycotted. There was a meeting next morning at Juvan Rupavati but what kind of speech was exactly delivered by Mr. Swaminarayan—there is not known as no evidence has been led on this point. In fairness to him it must be said that at all these places he also preached the gospel of Swadeshi and teetotalism.

Four witnesses have been examined on behalf of the prosecution. This was a summons case but it has been tried as a warrant case just to get the actual truth.

Mr. Swaminarayan, though he is not a Satyagrahi, is unrepresented and he took no part in the proceedings before the court. In his statement he puts forth the plea that the farmers of Dholka Taluka from the year 1927 have fallen on evil days; that he was helping them both in and outside Bombay Legislative Council and working for their relief from their fiscal burdens; that his prosecution is based on one or two sentences which have been detached at randum from his main speeches. that the drift of his speaking was that this year crops had failed but Government was not doing justice to the cultivators in spite of their numerous petitions in which a mention has been made of the failure of crops and which contained appeals to Government for the remission of the year's land revenue; that in view of the adamantine attitude of the administration; he counselled the cultivators to inform the Government that no payment of land revenue will be made by them until the Swaraj has been granted. According to himself all this did not amount to an offence under the Ordinance and in spite of his (useful public) work, if Government in their panicky mood are determined to incarcerate him, he was prepared to suffer any punishment that may be inflicted upon him. He concludes his statement that the real remedy for all the (existing political) troubles is the immediate grant of true "Swarajya" which alone can appease the people who are thirsty for real freedom.

Of course, there is some truth in the contentions of Mr. Swaminarayan regrding the tenor of his speeches. But a public speaker is apt to be carried away by the enthusiasm of his words in the course of public speaking. Further Mr. Swaminarayan who personally is most known of the leaders in rural parts of the Ahmedabad District, should have realized what effect the unguarded utterances of this character would have upon the inflammable human material to whom he was addressing. The people would surely take him that he was counselling of non-payment of taxes so long the present form of Government continues and nothing else. An exhortation of this kind from his mouth directly to the ignorant tax-payers entails tremendous difficulties to the administration.

There is no doubt that Mr. Swaminarayan is guilty of the offence of incitement of the public for non-payment of land revenue under section 3 of the Ordinance 6 of 1930 and I sentence him to six (6) months' Simple Imprisonment.

He is an ex-professor of Gujerat College and an old ex-Member of the Legislative Council. He is an absolutely democratic gentleman having the largest following in the Talukas of Viramgam, Dholka and Prantij. Such a man can have no other class than "A" class

THE BARAMATI 'DURBAR.'

—:o:—

Official Propaganda.

(From a Correspondent.)
BARAMATI, July 14.

A Durbar representing three Talukas of the Poona District was held here on the 11th of this month, under the presidentship of the Collector of Poona. Patils and Talatis from nearly 200 villages and a few prominent residents of Baramati were invited for the occasion. The local pleaders had but all boycotted the function The Government pleaders alone attended tickets of admission. A complete hartal was observed in Baramati and Indapur another Taluka place which was represented at the Durbar.

The Collector was out for Government propaganda against the Congress activities. Villagers though ignorant themselves could clearly see through the arguments advanced against the use of Swadeshi and prohibition of liquor. It is impossible to understand how Government still believes in such crude measures as against the formidable awakening in the country.

Two public meetings were held on the same day here—one at the time of the opening of the Durbar and another in the evening of the same day. Most of the villagers kindly collected by officialdom attended the evening meeting though they had to wait nearly for four hours for the same. It was the biggest meeting I have seen here in my stay here for nearly eig years.

BOYCOTT OF SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES.

—:o:—

An Appeal To Leaders.

Mr. B. F. Bharucha writes:—

Wherever this writer goes at present, he is asked to state his views regarding the boycott of schools and colleges. Since 1921, he has definitely held, and now reiterates:

(A) That mere emptying of schools and colleges leads not only to indiscipline, indolence and wasting away of national energy; but that the indifferent, reluctant and indisciplined lot will prove a regular lumber to their own families, and to the country at large. That was the bitter experience of 1921-22; and let us profit by it. I, therefore, submit:—

(1) That there should be no picketing at schools.
(2) At colleges, picketing should be peaceful, persuasive and voluntary.
(3) There should be no obstruction and no coercion.
(4) That those students, who have either parents' permission and are ready for all sacrifice should at once come out and serve our mother-country.
(5) But those who have neither their parents' sanction nor the will and strength to stand all suffering for their country, should better stick to their studies, and devote their spare time to the propagation of Swadeshi.

I appeal to the leaders to give their kind thought to these humble suggestions. For those who come out, let there be a clear cut programme of work in Villages, townships and cities. This is essential for the success of our great cause. May Leaders consider and act early, and thus hasten the attainment of Swaraj. Amen!

Mrs. Gokhalay On Charka Exhibition.

—:o:—

The following are a few remarks made by Mrs. Avantikabai Gokhalay in opening of the Charkha Exhibition, going in Bombay for the last 3 days:—

The exhibition that I have the honour of opening seems to be a unique one. It is a misfortune of the town, nowadays, that people do not get proper implements and instructions for spinning. This exhibition has filled up the want to my satisfaction. Demonstrations in ginning carding, spinning, and the instruments for finding strength, evenness, and number of yarn are given. Mending of Charkha.

The most essential thing is there.

Such kind of exhibitions are necessary in each and every corner of this city. to advance the production of Khadar.

The promoters are to be congratulated for making this exhibition a success in point of utility.

Hasten your Way back to Health!

SICKNESS and fevers strain the constitution, draining the body of its vitality. To assist rapid recovery, the bones and muscles and nerves and brain must be given food that contains all the materials of reconstruction in the exact proportions demanded by Nature.

After many years of research, one of England's most successful Chemists discovered the way of combining all the invaluable food elements of rich full-cream English cows' milk with the nutritive extracts of malted barley and wheat.

This wonderful food is Horlick's Malted Milk. It requires little digestive effort and yet it gives in proper proportions all the nourishment the body needs.

Start taking Horlick's today! You will soon feel the strength of health returning to your body. Doctors everywhere use and recommend Horlick's, so follow their example and advice. You will see the creamy purity of the health-giving powder through the glass, and remember, human hands never touch Horlick's during manufacture.

ALL INDIA SWADESHI IMFORMATION BUREAU.

—:o:—

Progress Of Work During The First Month.

The Secretary of the Bureauu writes:—

It is hardly a month since the Bureau was established in Bombay. During this very short period, the institution, judging from the amount of work it has put forth, has more than justified its existence as will be seen from the following account of its activities.

DEMAND FOR INFORMATION.

No sooner was the establishment of the Bureau announce than inquiries from all quarters of the country have been pouring in, in the office of the Bureau, regarding Swadeshi articles. Such inquiries have been on an average not less than 50 per day, and the Bureau's information department is heavily taxed in answering the queries.

Secondly, manufacturers and traders are taking advantage of the Bureau's agency in getting themselves introduced to each other. The Bureau has so far introduced 20 such parties to each other, who ahve highly appreciated the Bureau's work in this direction as the parties have succeeded in getting new business through the Bureau's agency. The Bureau has on hand about 20 more pending for introduction.

SWADESHI DIRECTORY.

The Bureau has far advanced in the work of preparing the Directory for which there as a great demand from all over India. It will contain, besides commercial information notes on a variety of interesting subjects. From the orders for copies which the Bureau is daily receiving, it would be clear that need for such publication was ever so great, and the Bureau's efforts in this behalf have ocme none too soon. The Directory will be of demioctave size containing about 800 pages. To make it available to the widst public, its price has been fixed at Rs. 5 its bare cost. The Directory will be sent to the press by the end of this month.

SCADESHI MUSEUM.

As for the Swadeshi Museum, samples of various commodities with comprehensive information about the same are being received daily from all quarters of the country. This has necessitated the organisation of Swadeshi Museumas early as possible. Attractive premises for the Museum in the "Shingne Building" on the Lamington Road, opposite N. Powell & Co., have already been secured and are at present being fitted up for Museum requirements. The Museum will be opened by the end of July.

For further particulars please apply to:—All-India Swadeshi Information Bureau, Alice Building, Hornby Road, Fort, Bombay.

VILLE PARLE, July 16.

Sjt. Harish Chandra Bala Guste and Vishnu Gopi Patil were arrested to-day at Varsova. Mr. Fernandez, the City Magistrate of Bandra tried Mr. Harish Chandra The police witness said against the accused that at a meeting held at night at Varsova on 13th inst he advised people to boycott the police, and such of those who refused to obey his words would be fined Rs. 25. Mr. Harischandra had only related his experiences of Darasana and had never uttered a word as regards the boycott of police. The Magistrate awarded him 6 months, R. I. and Rs. 75 fine or in default to undergo 3 months' more.

Sjt. Vishnu Gopi Patil was tried under the Sec, 3 of Act No. 22 of 1922, He was sentenced to 3 months' R. I. and Rs. 25 fine, or in default one month more.

Alibaug Landlord Charged With Cheating.

—:o:—

Mr. A. B. Vaidya, Solicitor, a partner of Messrs, Captain and Vaidya, Solicitors, presented an information before Mr. H. P. H. Dastur, Chief Presidency Magistrate, on Thursday and applied for process against Chintaman Shridhar Kulkarni, a landlord of Alibaug, for cheating. Mr. Vaidya alleged that the accused borrowed Rs. 5,000 in 1928 and mortgaged certain title-deeds of a property as securities which he represented were unincumbered. As the accused failed to pay the amount, a suit was filed and a consent decree obtained in 1930. The accused promised to pay the amount in two instalments. The first instalment was due in April, 1930. The accused failed to pay it, and when the complainant took steps to recover the property he was informed that it was already under attachment by a warrant. His Worship issued notice against the accused.

MISABAI IN BOMBAY

—:o:—

(From A Correspondent.)

The "Desha Sevika" office had an interesting meeting on Thursday. A lady from the West, who has assumed the simple garb of the Indian woman was seen closely observing the activty there. Seated on a low chair at the entrance, in familiar Hindu fashion with one hand crossed against the body, and the other resting on the knee, Miss Slade or Mira Ben, as she is popularly known in India wa making herself acquanted with the work the Derba-Sevika have undertaken.

Daughter of Admiral Slade, Miss "Mira" came in contact with Romain Rolland with whom she stayed and worked, to know the greatness of Mahatmaji; It was this greatness in rags which attracted her attention towards the Sabarmathi Ashram where she has resolved to spend her life.

As a keen khaddar propagandist, she has now started on an all India tour with the aim of popularising the Charkha the emblem of the freedom-loving Indian, and has arrived here, today. She is to start on a rapid tour in the presidency to observe the progress of the Charkha.

The Breatheable Remedy for COUGHS, COLDS AND BRONCHITIS

Diagram showing the steps way to the Lungs as described in the article below.

THE problem of how to convey a natural healing agent into the lungs has for generations exercised the minds of physicians and specialists.

By the discovery of Peps the problem has been solved. This remarkable breatheable medicine in handy tablet form, contains lung-healing medicaments, which strengthen weakened tissues, destroy noxious germs, check destructive coughing, and open-up the clogged breathing tubes.

DIRECT TO THE LUNGS.

As a Peps tablet slowly dissolves in the mouth it gives off valuable medicinal fumes which, as the diagram above shows, mingle with the air breathed through the nasal cavity and mouth (1 and 2). Over the tongue (3), into the throat (4), down the windpipe (5), the fumes pass direct to the lungs. Liquid cough-mixtures swallowed down the gullet (6) into the stomach, never reach the bronchials.

Peps deal not only with immediate trouble in throat and chest, but their healing and germicidal action extends to recesses

WHERE DISEASE LURKS.

Peps soothe and disinfect the throat and swiftly allay inflammation and soreness of the delicate linings of the air-tubes. They make breathing easy, cut and loosen choking phlegm and soon cure coughs, colds, bronchitis, bronchial asthma, etc.

¶ Peps afford sound protection against sudden chills, and the 'flu and pneumonia peril. A Peps in your mouth whenever you go outdoors into damp or chilly night air will soothe the throat, and strengthen and invigorate your chest and lungs.

Price Re. One per bottle. Of chemists and medicine vendors everywhere, or from agents:—Messrs. Smith Stanistreet & Co., Entally, Calcutta; Kemp & Co., Bombay; Dadha & Co., Madras; Shahani & Co., Karachi, etc.

M. BRIAND'S DREAM OF PAN-EUROPA.

Federation Of States.

BRITAIN GIVES A COLD RECEPTION TO SCHEME.

FETISH OF LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

The British reply to M. Briand memorandum for closer European political union is very sympathetic, but it fears that the new institutions might diminish the efficiency and authority of the League of Nations and create tendencies to inter-continental rivalries and hostilities.

The reply expresses opinion that M. Briand's ideal can effectively be secured by adapting proposals to bring them fully within the framework of the League. It suggests that the memorandum should be placed on the agenda of the next League Assembly.

The reply states that the memorandum requires a careful and prolonged consideration between British and all Governments of Dominions.

LONDON, July 17.

The reply of the British Government to the French Government's memorandum on the organisation of a system of European Federal Union is issued. The reply says that proposals, so important in purpose and scope, require careful and prolonged consideration and this must be undertaken in consultation with other Governments in the British Commonwealth. As the French Government requested a reply by mid-July, however, the present note has been sent although its comments and suggestions must be regarded as preliminary and tentative.

The fundamental purpose of the French memorandum is understood to be to divert the attention of European peoples from past hostilities and from conflicts of interest sometimes alleged to exist between them and to fix their attention upon the more important common interests which to-day they share, thereby promoting closer co-operation among European nations and Governments and strengthening the safeguards against another European War.

PURPOSE OF SCHEME.

The reply expresses the fullest sympathy with this purpose and the earnest hope that France's initiative will promote better understanding of common interests of European peoples, thus leading to greater mutual confidence and trust among their governments and diminution of obstacles to international trade and economic cooperation which now exists. Agreement is expressed with the view that it is primarily in respect of economic relations that a closer cooperation between European nations is urgently to be desired and that to this end, economic questions should be considered not one by one nor in respect of isolated interests but as a whole and from the wider viewpoint of the general interests involved.

Progress on such a question depends to the extent that the governments and the public opinion of the various countries can be brought to realise the vital importance of their common interests and the advantages that each will derive from measures for international solidarity. While, as the French Government recognise, the independece and national sovereignty of each country will have to be respected as well as the special authorities affecting particular groups of nations, much can be done by political authorities to promote a wider outlook on economic questions and in so far as political action is directed to this object, the British Government agree to the proposal made in the memorandum for an association of economic and political authorities.

WHERE LIES THE HITCH.

The reply continues "In respect, however, of the methods proposed by the French Government for realisation of their purpose His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom feel more difficulty. They are confident that mature examination will show that the establishment of new an independent international institutions is either necessary or desirable. If they have rightly understood the proposals contained in the memorandum, the French Government suggest the creation of new European Conference and Executive Committee and perhaps also new European Secretariat. These bodies would in no way derive their authority from the Covenant or from part Thirteen of the Treaty of Versailles; they would in no way be controlled by the rules and safeguards which those instruments provide; they would only correlate their work with that of the organs of League in so far as they decide by specific and spontaneous decisions to do so in any given case that might arise. Since organs of the League have already begun work on virtually the whole of the programme of practical action which the Memorandum puts forward, it is difficult to see how these new European institutions could operate without creating confusion and perhaps also rivalry which, however little it might be intended or desired by European Governments could hardly fail to diminish both the efficiency and the authority of the organs of the League.

MAY EXCITE RIVALRY.

Apart from this very difficult problem of co-ordination, His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom think it possible that an exclusive and independent European Union of the kind proposed might emphasise or create tendencies to inter-continental rivalries and hostilities which it is important in the general interests to diminish and avoid. It is in their view essential that measures taken for closer European cooperation should not cause anxiety or resentment in any other Continent. Unless this object is kept continually in view, His Majesty's Government are satisfied that even the wider interests both of Europe and the world may seriously be endangered. It will be plain to the French Government that in this connection there are special considerations of which His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom as members of the British Commonwealth of Nations must take account. Moreover, His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom are inclined to believe that the purpose which the French Government have in view can effectively be secured by so drafting the proposals put forward in the Memorandum as to bring them fully within the framework of the League of Nations.

FETISH OF THE LEAGUE.

They are impressed by the fact that the Warsaw Health Conference of 1922 and the reconstruction of Hungary and Austria, to name only few of the many examples that might be taken, were matters of European interest and concern and yet were effectively nealt with by the existing machinery of the League. They are, therefore, convinced that it would be possible perhaps by establishing European Committees of the Assembly Council and technical organisations of League or perhaps in other ways to create whatever machinery is required for promoting closer European cooperation without incurring risks and difficulties which a system of new and independent institutions might involve."

SCHEME TO PROTECT THEIR INTERESTS.

LONDON, July 17.

The Committee appointed to formulate a scheme for the protection of interests of spinners of the Egyptian section of Lancashire Cotton-spinning trade have drafted a plan including the pooling scheme and fixing of minimum marginal rates for various classes of yarn to be added to the cost price of cleaned cotton. The Committee express opinion that if the scheme is adopted, striking advance will be made to consolidate the position of Egyptian spinners in Britain.—Reuter.

"NOT A YARD OF FOREIGN CLOTH".

—:o:—

DELHI MERCHANTS' CABLE TO MANCHESTER.

NEW DELHI, July, 17.

The Secretary Delhi Piecegoods' Association, has sent the following letter to the Secretary Manchester Chamber of Commerce: "I am in receipt of your telegram of July 9 reading "Telegram received. Disagree contents. Quite on contrary buyers are not helpless nor is condition beyond human control. Shippers will insist on contracts being honoured", which was put before the committee and I am very sorry to state that/they are absolutely disappointed at the unreasonable and unsympathetic attitude which you have adopted.

Your information that buyers are not helpless is absolutely wrong, and no one having a modicum of common sense in him would call it justified. What would you call it when you know it as an absolute truth that not a single yard of foreign cloth can change hands at any price and in any part of British India?

In conclusion we specially wish to impress it upon you that unlike resolutions of cancellation passed by the Delhi Hindustani Mercantile Association, we have stoutly stood out for the sanctity of contracts. But the position to-day is such that it is humanly impossible for any one to fulfil his contract. Apart from being unable to sell a yard of foreign stuff, it is even impossible for banks to forward goods to outstations from Delhi owing to intensive picketing at certain special strategic points.

—:o:—

Did Not Bow To The Chair

—:o:—

The tumult when Mr. Brockway was suspended was such that the figures of division were inaudible, but it was noticed during the division that all parties except a score of Left-Wing Labourites voted for his suspension. Mr. Beckett's conduct evoked universal shouts of indignation.

It was noted that both he and Mr. W. J. Brown who were tellers in the Brockway division did not bow to the Chair as customary in reporting division. They stood nonchalantly by the table, then Mr. Beckett seized the great gold mace and bearing it on his shoulder, tried to force his way through the crowd of members. Most of the Left-Wing Labourites abstained from the Beckett division.

HOW TO SAVE THE R. T. C.

—:o:—

Satyamurti's Three Points.

HIS APPEAL TO LIBERALS

MADRAS, July 17.

Mr. S. Satyamurti in the course of statement to the Associated Press says:—

Since the Viceroy's last speech, a new danger has arisen on the political horizon viz. the demand that the British representation at the Round table conference should be an all party one and should not be confined exclusively to the representatives of the Labour Government. Such a demand, is preposterous. It is against the letter and spirit of the Viceroy's speech which stated 'inter alia' that the Round Table Conference was to be a meeting of the representatives of His Majesty's Government and of India. Secondly such a demand if conceded will foredoom the Conference to failure.

APPEAL TO LIBERALS.

I, therefore, appeal most earnestly to the Liberals, the Nationalists and the Muslim leaders who have been rightly impressed by the earnestness and sincerity of the Viceroy's last speech to reconsider their position and to make the following three demands, as conditions precedent of their participation in the Round Table Conference:—

The object of the Conference to be definitely stated to be to settle a Dominion Status Constitution for India subject to necessary safeguards for minorities and transitional arrangements;

The composition on the Indian side to be dominated by Congress and other progressive political parties; and

The composition on the British side to be exclusively of the representatives of the Labour Government."—A. P.

VICEROY'S REPLY TO SIR CHIMANLAL.

—:o:—

Earnest Consideration.

Sir Chimanlal Setalvad, President Western India Liberal Federation has received the following telegram from His Excellency the Viceroy, in reply to his telegram dated 15th instant which he sent on behalf of the Western India Liberal Federation calling attention to the apprehension which was felt by that body at the reported proposal to include in the British representation to the Round Table Conference, representatives of the Conservative and Liberal Parties:—

"Thank you very much for your telegram. I am giving most earnest consideration to the matter."

6 Delegates: 2 From Each Party.

RUGBY, July 17.

Mr. Benn, Secretary of State for India, stated in the House of Commons he was unable at present to indicate the character of the British representation at the Indian Round Table Conference.

Newspapers however state it is practically settled that three parties in the House of Commons will have seats at the Conference.

"Manchester Guardian" says, it is assumed that each party will nominate two members. The Prime Minister will be the Chairman.—B. O. W.

URDU VERSION OF SIMON REPORT.

—:o:—

LONDON, July 17.

In the House of Commons, Mr. Mander asked what was Government's policy concerning the recommended separation of Burma from India. Mr. Benn replied that it would be premature for him to make any statement.

Mr. Benn replied to Mr. Crookshank that arrangements had been afoot for some time to facilitate the translation of Simon Report into certain Indian languages. He understood that negotiations were proceeding for an Urdu version. He hoped shortly to inform the House of Commons what results followed the plans suggested to Provincial Governments for translations into other Indian languages.—Reuter.
